The Roth Firm Receives Yet Another Five Star Review

June 20, 2019

The Roth Firm, a law firm based in Atlanta, Georgia, recently received yet another glowing five-star review for one of their most recent court victories. The review in question is only one of many positive testimonials that the firm has received online. The Roth Firm enjoys an average rating of 4.5 on Google, where they have received over 250 votes, making them one of the best-reviewed firms in the area.

In the review, the client expresses how pleased she was with the firm's assistance throughout her legal process. Vicki J. says, "Everyone at the firm is awesome. They are friendly, but at the same time, very professional. I would give The Roth Firm five stars for taking extra good care of my case. And my attorney Jacob Jackson is absolutely awesome. He went above and beyond for my case and I am very grateful to him. He has made sure, every step of the way, that I was informed and made aware of where my case was. Jacob gets more than five stars! He is a great attorney and if I ever had to have another attorney, it will be him. Again, thank you for everything."

James M. Roth, of the Roth Firm, shares his comments on this review, saying, "Reviews like this motivate us to keep doing our work. Delivering the best legal representation has always been our attorneys? foremost priority, as we understand just how difficult these times can be for our clients. Any client that comes to us looking for a Personal Injury Lawyer in Atlanta can be at ease, knowing that they will receive the best representation in the state."

This dedication, combined with their excellent services, has earned The Roth Firm the recognition of some of the most renowned online lawyer directories and reviewing platforms. The website Avvo, for instance, has awarded The Roth Firm an outstanding 10/10 rating. Avvo explains, "The attorneys at The Roth firm are dedicated, experienced, and hardworking advocates for their clients. They rely on a razor-sharp focus to maximize the victim's recovery in a timely manner, while they take care of the entire legal process. Their lawyers painstakingly research each case to gain a keen understanding of what each client needs, and vigorously pursue the plan of action."

The Roth Firm focuses primarily on civil litigation and trial practice, concentrating their efforts mainly on personal Injury litigation, emphasizing the representation of those who have been injured due to negligence, carelessness, recklessness, or the intentional misconduct of others. James Roth states, "The lack of knowledge and understanding of the law draws many people back from attending a trial, or pursuing a lawsuit. Medical bills can grow to exorbitant numbers, and they could put victims in a very difficult financial situation that could be easily avoided with proper legal representation. Our attorneys will look after the victim's best interests, ensuring they receive the compensation they are entitled to. We invite anyone interested in corroborating our reputation to check us out on Google!"

The Personal Injury Lawyers at The Roth Firm represent a variety of types of cases: the estates of those who have passed away, have been seriously injured in car wrecks, trucking accidents, slip and falls, dangerous premises, and defective product design or maintenance. The Roth Firm?s team of attorneys has extensive experience in these fields, providing one of the best forms of legal representation in the state of Georgia.

The firm states that to ensure those in need get adequate representation, their attorneys typically work for a previously agreed contingency fee. This means clients do not have to pay for legal services up-front. Instead, costs are deducted from their final settlement amount?if they win a favorable outcome for a given case.

The Roth Firm services Atlanta, Fayetteville, Marietta, and Nashville, providing their renowned services to those in need. For more information regarding the local law firm's services, interested parties may contact James M. Roth, or visit the company's website. The firm also invites potential clients to request a free initial consultation, where the firms? attorneys can discuss, at a personal level, the extent of the compensation their clients are entitled to.
