Indianapolis based Furniture Corner is pleased to reach out to the residents of Indianapolis and its surrounding areas and invite them to browse the company?s diverse selection of furniture. The furniture store supplies local residents with high-quality pieces made to cater to a variety of different tastes.

From European to modern to rustic, the Furniture Corner of Indianapolis has pieces that appeal to every aesthetic. One of their customers, Marc, had this to say about his experience with Furniture Corner: ?This is a furniture store you have to see. Beats any other local store in style, color coordination, value, and selection. Tell Rick that Marc and Kimmie sent you."

Furniture Corner is one of the largest furniture stores in the region. With over 40,000 square feet of affordable, high quality furniture, including bedrooms, living rooms, dining rooms, recliners, rugs, and décor, the company offers some of the best products on the market. The store aims to help their clients create a beautiful home that precisely matches whatever vision they have. With the wide collection of superior quality pieces on offer, Furniture Corner?s customers are guaranteed to find what they seek when they visit the store. The store has a number of exquisite European design dining rooms, living rooms, and bedrooms on offer.

Furniture Corner says, ?Our European design gallery includes the most elegant handmade furniture with exquisite designs. We carry multiple furniture brands. Our goal is to deliver affordable, yet good quality furniture in the Indianapolis area. Whatever style you like, from modern to rustic, we can help you find the furniture you need at a price you will love.? Find out more here: European Furniture Indianapolis.

The store often works with interior designers to create customized pieces and is always interested in working with new, talented designers. ?We can help curate a design aesthetic that will be sure to impress you, your clients, friends, and family,? says the furniture store, a statement that is echoed on their website. ?We love working with interior designers, so if you are a designer and want to work with us, we would love to talk about developing a relationship.? The 40,000 square foot showroom has proven quite popular among homeowners who are trying to explore different styles of furniture. Those looking for a unique way to decorate their homes with affordable, stylish pieces can find everything they want at Furniture Corner.

Notably, Furniture Corner caters to a variety of different budgets without compromising on quality. No matter what the customer?s budget is, Furniture Corner has pieces to meet their needs, both financially and aesthetically. The store puts great emphasis on matching the right piece to the right client. They work with each customer to determine exactly what kind of furniture they need, based on their unique requirements. ?Every piece of furniture has certain elements or features that determine whether or not it is a good fit,? says the store. ?And let's face it, furniture is such an investment that understanding how and what to buy makes sense. Otherwise, the process can become confusing, intimidating, and ultimately frustrating.?

A review on Yelp by a customer known as Mike says, ?Mattress shopping can be scary when you have no idea what is going on. This place was amazing, though. They weren't pushy, were extremely honest, and several "repeat" customers bringing in friends were making the place come alive while we were inside. If you are looking for a mattress in the Indy area, you won't go wrong with this place.?

Another client, Jennifer, was also pleased with the service she received and said in an online review that she, ?Went looking for a reasonably priced mattress to replace my year old mattress that I hate. Keegan was very helpful and patient as I was making my decision on purchasing the new mattress. He listened to what I was looking for and worked within my price range. Delivery was quick and convenient. Great experience and a great new mattress!?
