Dependable Homebuyers is now buying land directly from owners in San Antonio. The nationwide We Buy Houses company was founded with the core purpose of buying residential properties. It has been acquiring all types of houses in San Antonio and throughout the state of Texas since its inception. It has now started buying different types of land. The real estate investment company wants to deal only with owners without any involvement of real estate agents or third parties. It is going to have the same process of buying land as it does while purchasing houses.

Any landowner in San Antonio who wants a quick sale can contact Dependable Homebuyers and immediately initiate the process of site visit and inspection, which is followed by a cash offer. Selling real estate is difficult. Houses stay listed for months before owners get a closing offer. Lands remain listed for a much longer time. It is hard to get genuinely interested buyers who agree with the ask price. Real estate agents have sufficient resources at their disposal but they are not specifically experienced in selling land. Their services are more suited for selling houses but even then they fail to get closing offers as quickly as desired by homeowners. Landowners can rely on listing service and other methods of reaching out to buyers but the average wait time of six months does not boost confidence or the prospect of actually selling a piece of land.

Dependable Homebuyers is not just an alternative. It is the only solution for those landowners who want a quick sale in San Antonio. Evan Roberts, the owner and founder of the We Buy Houses company, says he is looking for all types of land. He and his team are not stringent with the location, condition or type of land. Here's a recent press release they published. They are interested in lots that may be partly developed. They are buying raw and vacant land. They are also not averse to dealing with owners who may have title disputes. The company has already purchased agricultural land. It has bought rural and urban land in San Antonio. Landowners can get a closing offer sooner than they can list their lots for sale online.

Dependable Homebuyers promises an expedited sale. Their expert can visit the site and inspect the land in one session. Landowners can get a purchase offer in a day or two. The maximum wait time for the all cash offer is five days. The offer is nonobligatory. Landowners do not pay anything to Evan Roberts and his team or anyone else, not only at the stage of the offer but throughout the whole process. Dependable Homebuyers is a self financed company. It does not seek loans from banks. It does not rely on any other investor. It is capable of deciding quickly and it has the funds to buy land immediately. This is why it can close a deal and complete the sale in a fortnight. Landowners who want to sell land fast in San Antonio can easily succeed in their quest by choosing Dependable Homebuyers.
