July 01, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

All About Painting, a business in Chilliwack, Canada, has announced with pride that they have recently launched their Google My Business Map listing. The company is a Chilliwack house painting service provider. They point out that what distinguishes them from other house painting services is their Red Seal Journeyman Certification, free estimates, no upfront payment, best pricing in town, and satisfaction guarantee. With their new Google Maps listing, they expect that people who want to know they are dealing with a painting contractor who lives and works in Chilliwack will find peace of mind that All About Painting is all about Chilliwack.

Rickey Rain, owner of All About Painting, says, "I'm confident of my house painting services and I believe I'm the painting contractor you're looking for your house painting that will over-deliver and WOW you. Best paint quality for your walls is what you deserve to achieve that new house look and finish. You get what you pay for in this world, so we use Cloverdale Paint - known in the Lower Mainland for its long-lasting quality. You get my industry discount on paint when you purchase through my account with Cloverdale Paint."

According to Rickey Rain, the Red Seal Certification that All About Painting Chilliwack has ensures that the house painting service that is provided complies with the city code, for the safety, insurance and well-being of clients. Also, there are no upfront costs, which means that clients don't have to pay anything until they're satisfied with the job. And aside from the fact that there is no upfront cost, the price is ascertained to be the best price in Chilliwack. If clients can find a better price, Rickey Rain assures them that they will be able to beat it.

With regards to how long the painting job will take, Rickey Rain explains that it all depends on the amount of wear and tear on the walls. For example, if the homeowner has cats and dogs that have been scratching on the walls and children who have been banging on the walls for the last five to seven years, it will require a couple of days for the preparation. Performing quality preparation ensures that the walls will look like brand new after painting. It is what will contribute to that 'new home feeling' that All About Painting wants to provide to all customers.

Rickey Rain explains that they always take special care of the preparation because that is what will later provide that new home feeling, which will then cause the client to be wowed by the painting job. And according to him, they will not charge payment upfront, and there are no charges for estimates because they want to make sure that the customers are satisfied with the completed work before they receive money from them.

Of course, what other people have to say about the services provided by All About Painting is better proof that they provide excellent services. For instance, Sherman H. had given them a five star rating on Google Maps and said, 'I've met other contractors in Chilliwack but there's something special about the way Rickey runs All About Painting. He's passionate about his craft, taking his Red Seal certification seriously, and the way he describes how he desires to wow his clients with honest assessment and estimates, no upfront charges on paint / estimates, getting the job done to code and working on the job diligently till it's complete, and then when a client is impressed with the 'new home feel', will he then accept payment. I don't see or hear other craftsmen speak with such passion about their craft, very impressive. Plus, he offers a 100% best price guarantee, is simply mind blowing. [...] I've willingly shared and referred Rickey Rain from All About Painting to friends on Facebook. I know he'll take good care of them from beginning to end.'
