Pensacola, Fla.- Avalon Landing RV Park, a Pensacola campsite, is highlighting their abundant campsite features. The RV park has a variety of activities for campers to choose from such as hiking, kayaking, fishing, swimming, and boating. Guests of the park may also enjoy a private pool with a deck overlooking the Indian Bayou. Campers can visit and enjoy the waterfront views year-round.

Avalon Landing also offers their guests access to their own private saltwater canal. They can also enjoy the private canal where they can kayak, go boating, or fish from the pier with no license required. Visitors of Avalon Landing may bring their kayaks?or rent them?or their boats to enjoy the Pensacola waters. They may even catch a glimpse of a jumping fish or a fishing pelican.

The Pensacola RV park offers many more amenities for their guests. They provide free wireless internet and satellite cable TV to campers with restroom and laundry facilities available on site. Dumpsters are on both ends of the campsite for campers? convenience.

To make things easier for campers, the campsite allows up to 2 pets per reservation. Throughout the grounds there are areas set aside specially for visitors to walk with their dogs outside of their owners? reserved lots.

The park has garnered quite the reputation online. Claudia Bleifer, a satisfied camper, wrote to Avalon Landing, ?Great little park with a private canal where you can watch fish jumping and pelicans diving. Short drive to Pensacola and to shopping. We would have loved to stay longer and will definitely go back if we're in the area again.?

Pia Johnson, another satisfied camper, wrote, ?If I could give this park more than five stars, I would! If you?re into quiet, privacy, and gorgeous views, this is the park for you!?
