

IM Consultant Services Publishes Dan Lok Review

July 08, 2019

July 08, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cincinnati, Ohio based IM Consultant Services (ICS) recently issued a comprehensive review of Dan Lok on their website. The company notes that many people find Lok's program to be extremely useful in closing high ticket transactions.

Dan Lok is a Chinese-Canadian business magnate and global educator best known for being the founder and chairman of closers.com, the world's #1 SaaS platform which connects companies to closers. Lok has also led several global movements to redefine modern education, where he has taught people from over 130 countries to develop high-income skills, unlock true financial confidence, and master their financial destinies. Beyond his success in business, Lok was also a two time TEDx opening speaker. He is an international best-selling author of over a dozen books and a member of Young Presidents Organization (YPO), a private group of global chief executives whose companies employ 16 million people and generate 6-trillion USD in annual revenues. Today, aside from getting featured in high profile magazines and TV shows, Lok spends most of his time teaching people how to be successful through his High-Ticket Closer? Certification Program.

High-Ticket Closer? is a program that helps entrepreneurs understand the psychology of their customers. It is an intense 7-week program that teaches financial success within the shortest time frame possible. According to Lok, the High-Ticket Closer? program is suitable for people who are willing to work hard to gain financial freedom. The High-Ticket Closer operates for seven weeks at a total cost of $2495, and participants are expected to learn how to succeed in high ticket closing. Lok personally mentors his students to help them get the right guidance and knowledge in the field. At the end of the program, students will get to learn the psychology behind ultra-luxury selling and high ticket sales, the secrets to closing millions of dollars over the phone, how to handle rejections, resistance, and objections, as well as finding legitimate high ticket partners. Mike Marko from ICS stresses that those who make negative statements about the High-Ticket Closer program are also those who have not actually taken Dan Lok's program. "For the record, Dan Lok is not a scam, for he is a successful man who operates at a high level with honor, integrity, and kindness," he affirms. Marko further explains that during the first few weeks of Lok's program, students are taught and conditioned to have the right attitude and mindset for the job, while the last few weeks focus more on developing the proper techniques and acquiring the right skills in closing high-ticket sales. After successfully finishing the program, Lok usually introduces his students to some of his own high-ranking clients.

"Lok even offers a refund if you don't see any changes in yourself within the first 2-3 weeks of the program to prove that it's not about the money, because he provides true value. The people claiming that Dan Lok is a scam do not fully grasp what he has to offer. He stands as an influencer who wants to teach people how to earn big the smart way. Dan Lok is not offering you a course that will guarantee you to become a millionaire. It's for you to take in the knowledge, work hard, and practice to improve yourself and your business," Marko says. He also encourages the general public to visit the ICS website to read the full Dan Lok review.

IM Consultant Services is one of the leading providers of online marketing services to businesses in the greater Cincinnati area. The company works with business owners to help them create growth strategies, and help convert those strategies into actions and deliver the sustainable success they desire. They are one of the industry leaders that provide entrepreneurs with critical growth strategies and opportunities which include digital marketing, digital transformation and strategic planning, advanced analytics, and branding.

One of their many satisfied clients, Debra Ackerbloom, said in a Google review, "I could not be happier with my new website, designed by Mike and the team at IM Consultant Services. My availability is really limited due to my all hours work schedule, and Mike never skipped a beat. He regularly reminded me of what was needed from me, discussed options, introduced great ideas, and then he and his team did a really beautiful job for my business. I really appreciate their process, skill level, and work ethic."
