MainVue Homes is part of the internationally respected Henley Properties Group and is also a part of Sumitomo Forestry Group. With their worldwide relationship, they built over 13,000 homes in 2018. They have been building in Australia to Japan and now recently in the past few years expanded to the United States market.

MainVue Homes has been building in the Dallas Texas cities which are Colleyville, Frisco, Prosper, and Celina.

They are known for bright, open floor plan, modern color schemes, sleek, outdoor fireplace for entertaining, and popular contemporary look. They are also one of the few that build stucco exterior here in the Dallas Ft. Worth area with a contemporary look. Builders typically build Mediterranean look here in the Dallas Ft. Worth area when using a stucco exterior. They are the only homebuilder that is building this type of look and feel in the DFW area.

Their luxury designs are thoughtfully crafted for home buyers and their designer features that are not only within reach, but offer our full selection of exquisite luxury inclusions at no additional cost. Each collection is meant to complement the proud - and specific - needs and tastes of refined home buyers in each of our geographical regions. Their home designs brings a fresh modern look to the United States market. This is what sets them apart from other traditional builders. Then open design and large glass windows and glass doors offers the natural bright lightings that you typically do not see with other homes.

Customers express how they love the luxury designs they offer and the beautiful backyard option they offer as part of their home options. They have also recently expanded into Prosper Texas in the popular Windsong neighborhood. This neighborhood has the first pool of its kind in Texas. This Blue Lagoon encompasses 5 acres and is 8 feet at its deepest. Do you want to learn more about MainVue Homes in the Dallas Ft. Worth area.
