Fast Home Sales Announces New Scholarship Program

July 08, 2019

July 08, 2019 -
Holbrook, Massachusetts based Fast Home Sales recently announced the launch of their new FastHomeSales.com scholarship program. The local company asserts that they seek to give back to the community that has always welcomed them by supporting the future of the country as a whole. More information regarding scholarship opportunities can be found through the following link: https://www.fasthomesales.com/scholarship/.

Rob Morris, co-founder of Fast Home Sales, states that this is an opportunity for those struggling to find a balance between work and their education to find financial relief. He says, "As business owners and parents, we see the value of nurturing the current generation of students and future entrepreneurs. We want to be part of the solution by supporting a vibrant and active academic and entrepreneurial spirit in the youth across the country. This should ease some of the weight that is put on our student's shoulders, and allow them to reach their goals with minimum concerns. We are delighted to offer these scholarships to our future leaders of tomorrow."

Without a doubt, the FastHomeSales.com Scholarship is a step in the right direction, supporting students to help them achieve their full potential. Morris continues, adding "We are no strangers to the struggles that a student goes through. We have experienced the student's hardships, and this is what motivates us to present them with this opportunity. By offering these scholarships to students who dream of something more, we hope to make their journey to academic achievement a little bit easier. It is in everyone's best interest to support those who have the future of our country in their hands."

The company explains that their new scholarships are designed to support the most dedicated and outstanding students who have shown great commitment towards self-improvement and development. Once a student has been chosen, and has received their monetary aid, they are free to use the scholarship funds on any expenses related to their educational pursuits. This should significantly reduce the financial burden of their education, especially considering the costs of reading materials and tutoring. More details can be found on the accompanying video published by the company, which is available through the following link: https://youtu.be/NHQrJIs92vw.

Fast Home Sales says applying for the FastHomeSales.com Scholarship should be easy enough, as students will only have to submit an essay of 1000 words or more before the deadline. For submissions, the content of the essay will be more important than the word count or grammatical errors, as the company places much greater value on the student's dedication and enthusiasm. As such, they will be evaluating applications based on creativity and originality. All applications will be reviewed by an expert panel consisting of the staff of Fast Home Sales and an independent expert. The winner will be decided by a majority vote of the expert panel.

The topic of the 2019 essay is: "How do you plan to invest in real estate to secure your financial future?? The content of said essay must be completely original, authored by the candidate alone. Applicants are advised to submit their essays by November 29th, 2019 to ensure they will be considered for the available scholarships. The winners of 2019's FastHomeSales.com Scholarship will be announced on December 17th, 2019.

To be eligible to participate for the FastHomeSales.com Scholarship, students must also fulfil the eligibility criteria set by the company. Applicants must be either currently enrolled or planning to enroll at an accredited college or university, have a minimum of a 2.5 GPA, be a full-time student located within the United States, and agree to abide by Fast Home Sales? official scholarship rules and follow all application instructions. To provide equal opportunities to every student, there will be no restrictions placed on either the major the student chooses, nor their nationality.
