July 31, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Alliance Awards, a Fort Worth-based importer and wholesale award manufacturer for the promotional products industry, is pleased to introduce their services to the corporations and businesses of the Fort Worth area.

Speaking of the services the company provides, Alliance Awards representative Wade Latham says, "At Alliance Awards, we can create whatever you want. Our products include personalization on anything you can think of: from glass and acrylic to desk plates and name badges. We can give you the customized product you need. At Alliance Awards, we give you access to every product in the world that can be personalized with your company name or a corporate logo for marketing and advertising purposes."

Alliance Awards was originally founded in 1997. It has since grown, from its initial purpose as a large format print retailer, to a full-service promotional products company serving the Fort Worth and Texas area. The company offers custom awards and recognition items, and advertising specialty items such as banners and signage. Learn more about the company at the following link: Awards Fort Worth.

Latham says, "Yes, we started out as a print retailer, creating massive posters and so on. When we first started to expand, we put together promotional and marketing materials for other companies. Then we went on to become a trophy and award manufacturer, as the corporate culture continued evolving and companies and higher-ups started recognizing and acknowledging their employees' talents and presenting them with awards. As the need for trophies and awards within companies increased, it was the natural path for us to follow as well. Now, we make everything that a company might possibly need."

Steffanie, a client who had recently contacted Alliance Awards to create custom shirts for her company, says, "I searched for a long time to find a company that could create what I need at a reasonable price. Looked at a few companies in the area, searched a bit on the internet, as well. Finally managed to find Alliance Awards, and they were a godsend. Wade was incredibly helpful and informative about the options I had. The final product was perfect, cheap, and of good quality. If I have the need to create any personalized item for my company, I now know exactly who to go to."

Latham notes, "We have over 40 years of combined experience in the industry. At Alliance Awards, we can develop any idea you have into a finished, polished product. Throughout the whole process, customer satisfaction is a primary goal, and we make sure that we only put our best foot forward. If we make a mistake, we'll fix it quickly without any additional cost to you. If you have any award design needs, just give us a try. Find us at our Fort Worth office, or our website at <https://www.allianceawards.com/>."

Another customer, Sara, says, "I was treated with the best customer service from the moment I stepped in. The owner greeted me as I walked in. We had a short conversation about what I needed: six trophies in four days. He said the turnaround was no problem, assured me he had all the supplies I requested in stock, and we made our way to check out. Everything was simple and smooth. All in all, it took about five minutes. Four days later, my trophies were ready. I definitely recommend Alliance Awards with all my heart."

Online reviews are also positive. A 5-star review by Rob S. says, "Just wanted to give a shout out to the folks at Alliance Awards, located here on Hicks at 147 Aviator Drive. I needed an upscale looking metal plate with an adhesive backing to label some of the new gear on the panel of my RV-7. They worked with my design until it looked perfect and I was happy with the finished product. If you need something similar, give them a shout, no need to drive all over town!"
