August 05, 2015

August 05, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Debby McKinney has reported that the Millionaire Maker Event, planned for August 14, 2015 in Pensacola, Florida, is set to be a packed house. "Registration is filling up fast," says McKinney. "We're so excited that everyone is planning to attend and wanted to urge anyone still on the fence to get registered now, because there may not be room if they wait."

The one-time only event will feature bestselling author and millionaire maker Loral Langemeier, who will share some of her secrets for making millions and how the average person can go from living paycheck to paycheck to basking in luxury.

The self-made entrepreneur offers coaching, training, and advice for those looking to live financially free lives. Langemeier, along with McKinney, and Shark Tank's Kevin Harrington, authored the book "Get in the Game", which is now a best seller in many bookstores online and off.

"I want to help people to live the lives that they have always dreamed," says Langemeier. "I realize that sounds like a canned response, but it's the truth. People just don't know that they have it in them to be financially independent. This is where I come in. I can point them in the right direction. I've done it thousands of times over."

More details of the event can be found at <http://bit.ly/dmloral>. Langemeier plans to share her "7 deadly financial traps" and alert attendees to what they can do to avoid those traps and provide themselves with a millionaire's lifestyle.

The keynote speech will cover how attendees can create true financial security, regardless of their current amount of debt or their current income status. Langemeier has helped others to escape their financial problems and quit their jobs in less than four months after implementing her plan.

Langemeier and McKinney urge those who would like a spot at the event to register now, as seating is becoming more limited by the day. There are currently no plans to host another event like this one in the near future.
