Alpine Awards & Imprinted Sportswear, Inc has a humble origin story. Starting off in a Foster City home garage in 1972, the family owned business was first opened by Ron and Kathleen Vella. The couple?s son who is equally as passionate about the business of awards, Greg Vella, decided to follow in his father?s footsteps and took over the business as the company?s President.

Over the following 4 decades, the company has grown leaps and bounds. Having only offered trophies and awards at the inception of the business, the company added custom screen printing and embroidery to their services about 30 years ago. What sets the company apart is their attention to detail and unrelenting dedication to the service they provide for their clients. They take pride in always having quality products and service at the forefront of their business model.

"It's not a uniform, it's a person. It's not just one trophy misspelled, it's a disappointed kid," states a member of the Alpine Awards team.

They offer an array of products and services to meet almost any need or suit any event. It's clear in the company's reviews the loyalty they have generated in their community. One reviewer states, "I have been dealing with the Alpine Awards team for several years as a Coach and also as a board member for our Soccer League. They have always been fair, on time (early even). And in the rare the of errors, they have always rectified any issues. In addition to their fair pricing, they also offer close out deals. We are proud to have them as our preferred vendor and I will continue to use them after my time is up with our league."
