Watersound, Florida based Hilary & Reverie (H&R) is pleased to announce they will be hosting an event celebrating the anniversary of their first year in operation. The company will be holding a broker-open event on the 8th of August to celebrate the occasion, which will be held at one of the most luxurious properties on Inlet Beach, Florida. Interested parties may learn more about the event through their website.

Hilary & Reverie states that the event will be yet another way for them to celebrate their success with those that made it possible. Their goal for the year to come is to remain accessible to their clientele, responding to inquiries and providing advice on the current state of the real estate market, but stay connected to the community through outreaches like Food for Thought, Inc. and other outlets.

Hilary Farnum-Fasth, Broker & Owner of Hilary & Reverie, elaborated on the various initiatives the brokerage has to give back to the community, asserting, "As proud as I am of our over 100 million in sales for our first year and our rapid growth, I'm most happy about the ways in which we were able to give back to our community as a company. From our hurricane Michael relief efforts to our corporate sponsorship and constant support of Food for Thought and other local charities, it's this purpose that drives all of our team."

"You are only as good as who you surround yourself with," notes Farnum-Fasth, referring to a famous quote. She continues, "This could not be truer for the success behind the first year of Hilary & Reverie." The brokerage has managed to produce a team that deeply cares about the community they are serving, and are actively looking after their best interests at all times."

She elaborates, "The team that has been built in this past year is very special and combines a lot of unique talents that have propelled the level of success we have seen in this first year." Moving forward, Farnum-Fasth asserts, Hilary & Reverie will continue to look for new ways to give back to the community to whom they owe their phenomenal success.

Additionally, the brokerage launched a new magazine that is available to members of the public. They state that Hilary & Reverie: The magazine is a useful resource for investors and brokers that is intended to provide updates on South Walton's hottest real estate markets, featuring luxury properties and 30A's local events.
