Michelle Vargas, a resident of Easton Heights expresses his satisfaction with his recent experience with Big Mike Towing. "As I was coming home from a trip to Whispering Vines Vineyard, my tires blew out. While I do carry a spare tire, I don't have the slightest idea of how to change tires. Good thing I called up Big Mike for help. In barely 40 minutes, they came, change my tires and I got back on the road again. Their tow worker even taught me how to change tires while performing it. He also gave me tips to avoid flat tires. What seemed an unfortunate event turned out to be a great learning experience. Kudos to Big Mike!?"

Big Mike Towing's representative, Rudi Dodson, explains, "Our tow drivers are experienced and skilled roadside assistance service providers. They come not just to help stranded motorists get back on the road.

They also help motorists to become more careful and proactive to avoid car troubles. We want to give you the peace of mind when driving. Our company adheres to the adage that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.?

?Nevertheless?, continued Dodson, ?If your car problems strike for the most unlikely reasons and during the most unexpected time or place around Tulsa, Big Mike Towing will be there 24-7 to help you and make everything alright. Big Mike is your big brother on the road.?

In another account from another satisfied customer, Jerry Blake, shares, ?Nothing is more frustrating than getting locked out of your car. I felt beating myself up for leaving the keys inside. I was planning to break my windows when a friend suggested calling Big Mike Towing. And true enough, they came in a few minutes and opened the car in a pinch. If not for Big Mike, I might have hurt myself or pay more for breaking my car windows.?

?Car lockout services are a specialized form of roadside assistance. It takes properly trained tow workers who are knowledgeable with car security and lock systems to performing it. Aside from opening the car, our workers also aim in minimizing as much as possible damage to vehicles, ? explains Dodson. ?Moreover, we also advise our customers to carry spare keys separately in a bag. Again, we emphasize the ounce of prevention,? he added.

Aside from changing flat tires and opening locked cars, the company also offers to winch out service, jump start service, and fuel delivery, among others. These services are the most common and most likely troubles that many motorists face while on the road. Finally, the company offers $5 off to all their roadside assistance services. Thus, aside from getting top-notch service from Big Mike Towing, customers also get an additional incentive. ?All efforts to make your services the best in the industry and all promises of helping people is like pushing water uphill with a rake if they are not accessible to the people. We, at Big Mike Towing, make our roadside services affordable because they are sincerely meant for helping,? said Dodson.
