August 02, 2019 -
Builder Hot Spots is pleased to announce that one of their featured builders, MainVue Homes, recently expanded into Prosper, TX in the popular Windsong neighborhood. MainVue Homes is part of the internationally respected Henley Properties Group and is also a part of Sumitomo Forestry Group. With their worldwide relationship, they built over 13,000 homes in 2018.

They have been building in Australia to Japan and, just a few years ago, expanded to the United States market. The builder is one of the few companies in the Dallas-Fort Worth area that crafts stucco exterior with a contemporary look. MainVue Homes is a home builder that Builder Hot Spots is proud to spotlight.

Builder Hot Spots is a website that provides the latest information on new home builders and new home communities in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Visitors to the site can search for new homes with thousands of floor plans and interior images. People can quickly filter through homes, save their favorite home, and schedule a home viewing. Builder Hot Spots also offers a resource center to educate people about the building process. Those in the market for a new home can sign up for and get notified of Builder Promotions.

With the power of Builder Hot Spots at their fingertips, a first-time home buyer in the Dallas area can make the home buying process simple and easy.

Builder Hot Spots allows home buyers to browse new homes by city so that people can find the perfect home in the area in which they wish to move. Also, the website has a directory of home builders in Dallas. Each builder included in the directory has a short description of the company, and, below the description, are listed a selection of homes the builder has constructed in various neighborhoods.

To facilitate the process of finding a new home, Builder Hot Spots has several search features within its site. The ?New Home Search? allows site visitors to adjust various parameters in order to find a property that matches their preferences. Parameters include city, builder, price range, number of beds, number of baths, minimum square feet, and build status. Builder Hot Spots also offers Quick Searches that enable people to search for homes by neighborhood or by builder.

Builder Hot Spots links home buyers with the perfect home in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. The website has a wide range of helpful services, including a builder directory, new home search features, and a resource and education center.

Finding the right home can be a challenge, but, with the assistance of Builder Hot Spots, people can find the home or home builder that suits their needs.
