Fort Walton Beach, Fla. - Fort Walton Beach Bankruptcy Lawyers, Lewis & Jurnovoy, are moving to a new location in Fort Walton Beach. Luckily, they are not moving far. Their new address will be at 151 South Mary Esther Cut Off NW Suite 103B in Fort Walton Beach. In an effort to further serve their community, this new location will be reachable by a greater number of those looking for help with their financial troubles.

"Being accessible to those who rely on our services is one of the many reasons why so many have gone to us with their questions about bankruptcy," Steven Jurnovoy stated. "Re-examining financial priorities, budgeting, and questions about credit obligations are a few of the many topics we are known to cover and inform our clientele on to make the best decisions for not only the present but to set them on the right path for the future."

This new location will allow Fort Walton Beach Chapter 13 bankruptcy lawyers Lewis and Jurnovoy to continue their pursuit of dispelling myths, rumors, and lies about bankruptcy. Their goal is to help people alleviate their financial stresses through information and well-researched options to the seemingly unsolvable.

Clifton C, a previous client of Lewis & Jurnovoy, stated, "My experience with Lewis & Jurnovoy was a pleasant experience at an unpleasant topic. They are easy to work with and they do have your back. I made several calls to their office when something came up and each time they always got back to me. I would fully recommend them when it comes to bankruptcy."

The primary emphasis of the Lewis and Jurnovoy law firm is in the representation of individuals in Chapter 13 bankruptcy, Chapter 7 bankruptcy, mortgage foreclosures, mortgage modifications, and protecting against abusive debt collectors. Their goal is to assist in protecting assets while either eliminating creditors or figuring out a manner in which to repay them.
