August 05, 2019 -

Crestview, Fla. ? Gross & Schuster, P.A., a team of personal injury lawyers in Crestview, FL, are on the move to promote their radio show on Wednesday, August 7. Terence Gross will be the guest speaker on multiple radio stations discussing legal and political talk. The show is an opportunity for Gross & Schuster to express their ideologies on the legal and political factors in America. Some of the radio stations that it will be aired on are 1260AM Cumulus Media, 92.3FM/1620AM WNPR, and 99.1FM/1330AM WEBY.

?Our show is the perfect opportunity for listeners to get feedback on the things that concern them the most, one of those things being the law,? Terence Gross said.

The radio show, usually hosted by Terence Gross, is the perfect domain for information pertaining to the Florida?s justice system. From discussions on tort reform to banter centered on dealing with aggressive lawsuits, the radio show contains plenty of vital information for listeners.

Alicia S, a previous client of Gross & Schuster, stated, "Throughout my case, I had lots of questions and he was able to assist by getting answers. The entire staff is very helpful and responsive. They gave great recommendations on medical professionals. I would recommend this firm to anyone seeking a lawyer. They are all easy to talk to and seem to care about their clients."

As leading personal injury attorneys in Crestview, FL, it is imperative for the Gross & Schuster team to inform and educate the public on the ins and outs of the law. Leading the people of Florida in the right direction when it comes to legal matters is in Gross & Schuster?s opinion, the best way to do business.

?We believe that it is our sole duty to educate the public on these matters,? Gross said. ?It?s crucial that people know and understand their rights, especially in today?s economy.?
