Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., a law firm in Macon, Georgia, has announced that they have been helping people who have been in an auto accident in Macon and surrounding areas. They want to stress that accidents are often the result of negligence and in a car wreck, it can be something as simple as failing to yield the right way, or as drastic as driving under the influence. Victims of negligent action, according to the law, have specific rights to compensation when they sustain injuries in a car wreck.

?If you are the victim of an auto accident, you will need to hire a car wreck attorney in Macon. Hiring an attorney, such as one from the firm of Kenneth S. Nugent, PC, will allow you to recover the full amount of compensation you are entitled to under the law,? says Tim Derrickson, marketing director at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C.

Tim continues, ?A Macon auto accident attorney will skillfully review your case and determine what obligations the insurance company has relating to your injuries. This may include compensation for property damages to your car, temporary replacement of your vehicle, ongoing medical treatment and lost wages. If your injuries are extensive, the insurance company may also be obligated to pay you for pain and suffering, as well as loss of enjoyment of life.?

Thus, it is necessary for auto accident victims to get the services of an auto accident attorney when they are injured. Oftentimes, insurance companies will try to save on costs by cutting as many benefits as possible. They will usually not be concerned about fairness or necessity, unless they are forced by a law firm. Without legal representation accident victims will usually not get fair and just compensation for their injuries.

The lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. are able and willing to actively represent the case of the accident victim to the insurance company. The lawyers will review the case carefully to lay out the best plan of action. This will include talking to the repair shops, medical providers, and witnesses to the accident. After accumulating different information, these will be carefully assessed and they will come up with a compensation package.

Ken Nugent, the founder of the law firm, obtained his law degree from Emory University School of Law in Atlanta. After passing the bar exam, he joined the State Bar of Georgia. Later on, he opened the first law offices of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. in Atlanta. The firm grew and expanded into many more places in Georgia, including Macon, Albany, Augusta, Columbus, Duluth, Savannah, and Valdosta. With these offices, the firm is able to reach to rural communities in the state of Georgia and allow their team of lawyers to visit clients at home whenever it is necessary.

Their practice areas are transportation and vehicle accidents, personal injury, defective products and dangerous drugs, and overtime and unpaid wages. Transportation and vehicle accidents include 18-wheeler truck accidents, car wrecks, boating and maritime accidents, motorcycle accidents, and recreational vehicle accidents.

Personal injury cases include medical malpractice, slip and fall, wrongful death, nursing home abuse, and workers' compensation. Defective products and dangerous drugs cases include defective products and dangerous drugs and defective medical devices.

They point out that they have a string of successful results for clients and this is because their injury attorneys have three key advantages. First, they routinely work in cases in counties throughout the state and are familiar with the local settlement and verdict amounts for cases that are similar to a particular client. Second, they can benefit from the knowledge base of the 26 lawyers in the firm to increase the value of a case. Third, they have two attorneys who used to work on the defense side of injury litigation.

Those who are interested in getting the services of a personal injury law firm can visit the website of Kenneth S. Nugent or contact them through the telephone or via email. They are open from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm, from Monday to Friday, and from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm, from Saturday to Sunday.
