While Towing is part of its name, the company provides more than towing services alone. Muldoons Towing provides a standard variety of towing services, including but not limited to flatbed towing, wheel lift towing, light-duty towing, medium-duty towing and motorcycle towing. In addition to this, however, they also provide auto wrecker services, auto-recovery services, and a series of roadside assistance services, such as car lockout, jumpstart, auto-recovery, and winch out services.

Muldoons Towing is also quick to point out that they provide their services at an affordable price. Hanson says, ?People who need towing have enough to worry about without stressing over expenses. At Muldoons Towing, our main concern is to offer customers our towing services at great rates. In a business like ours, you need to put people and their needs first. This mindset is why we already have many loyal customers. We can pretty confidently say that we offer the best towing rates in the Louisville area.?

In the months following the start of their operation, Muldoons Towing has already collected a number of positive reviews reflecting the truth in their statements regarding their dedication to the community. Anthony S., a recent customer of Muldoons Towing, says, ?I was recently in a bit of trouble. I was traveling through Louisville on my way back from a conference and got stuck in the mud. The first tow company I called didn?t show up. Left me hanging. But Muldoons came to my rescue. They were at my location shortly after my call and got me out without any complications to my brand new Audi. Highly recommended, thumbs up!?

Another recent customer, Harold H. says, ?The Muldoons Towing team that helped me out were very polite and easy to deal with. Returning from a funeral and getting two flat tires doesn?t put you in a good mood and I was rather sour. But these guys were super. They were kind, considerate, and very flexible with what I wanted. Would definitely call them if I need towing again. My flat tires were taken care of quickly and methodically. They really made me feel better, just in the way they went about doing their job. I would recommend them to anyone.?

A 5-star review left on Google by L.S. Perry reads, ?These guys were lifesavers, got to me fast and towed me at a good price. I appreciate it. Thanks.? Another review by Todd Bunikas, highlighted on the company?s website, reads, ?Excellent, fast, polite Service. I will definitely use again when needed. Thanks, Muldoons Towing, for outstanding service!?
