

Builder Hot Spots Now Featuring Home By Highland Homes In Prosper, TX

August 23, 2019

August 23, 2019 -
Builder Hot Spots, a real estate broker based in Plano, Texas is pleased to announce that they are featuring a new home by Highland Homes on their website. The website allows visitors to search, locate, and book showings for homes they are interested in to make the property-buying and building process easier.

Cat Nguyen, a representative for Builder Hot Spots, says, ?The new house we are featuring on our website?plan 244H?is beautiful. It has 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. For people in Prosper, Texas looking to build a nice new family home, this could be the perfect choice. At 3,109 square feet, it?s comfortably sized. For the starting price of $525,990, it?s a very good investment, especially considering that Highland Homes? construction is thoroughly reliable.?

Those who are interested in learning more about Highland Homes? plan 244H can find more information on the company?s website, including a detailed property description, price, a full floor plan, and precise location. They may also browse other plans in the neighborhood. Interested parties can also arrange a viewing from the property page itself.

?At Builder Hot Spots, we have over 19 years of local experience in the real estate market,? states Nguyen. ?We know how it works, inside and out. Our website is built based on that experience, and makes the process of searching a new home as easier.?

She continues, ?Our one goal as a company is to make it easier for people to find their dream homes. We know how frustrating the whole searching process can get. With the Builder Hot Spots website, however, the searching process has never been easier. You can use our powerful search filter to find a home that fits your needs and get the start viewing homes in person with her guidance.?

The Builder Hot Spots website allows those searching for homes to find a potential plan to build based on a number of different categories. People can sort by builder, with dedicated pages assigned to different house builders with a list of homes built by the builder in question, or by city. To narrow it down further, users can also start with a particular neighborhood. In addition, by signing on to the website, users can also favorite and follow different homes, allowing them to make informed decisions at a later date.

Nguyen says, ?I have a lot of experience in the market myself. I have personally invested in and remodeled a number of properties, so I have an in-depth knowledge of pricing and the cost of home repairs, as well as the local market in general. When I work with my clients, my experience helps me put their needs and interests first, always. I?ve helped many homeowners during the market crash and I?ve helped many more sell during the recession so they can avoid foreclosure.?

A client, Julia A. says, ?I really can?t praise Catherine?s and her team well enough. Cat?s been our realtor for over eight years now and she?s an absolute pro. With her help, we sold our Dallas townhome within a month! It was her help that ensured that the whole process of selling was as easy and as stress-free as possible. On top of that, she was also by our side as we built our new home. We could not have asked anyone better to work with and she comes highly recommended.?

Another client, Brian D. says, ?I can definitely say that Cat and her team are excellent realtors to work with. They are very helpful, knowledgeable, and responsive. I mean, they helped me sell a condo for more than my asking price and buy a new home build at the price I wanted. As a cherry on top, they also negotiated with the builder and got me a sweet new fridge. Honestly, beyond excellent realtors.?

Those who are interested in learning more about Cat and her team, or are looking to purchase a property from them, can find more relevant information on their website. Clients and other parties may also connect with the company through their social media pages to stay up to date with their latest news and announcements.
