August 20, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

TNL has announced that they have recently opened a new location in Houston, Texas, which is known as TNL Houston #2. Once in operation, they will be offering financial assistance to people in Houston and neighboring areas. Clients will only need to have an auto title to take advantage of the financial assistance being offered. With the kind of financial assistance that they are providing, clients need not worry about their credit history. More information about their new location can be found at <https://www.thenetlender.com/locations/tnl-car-title-loans-houston-2>.

According to a spokesperson for TNL Houston #2, "You could have cash in your pocket as quickly as 24 hours. In addition, your vehicle's make and model will determine just how much you can receive which could be as little as a few grand up to $30,000."

The spokesperson continues, "We make it our goal to go above and beyond to meet your needs and our customer support representatives have the knowledge and experience to help you develop an ideal payment strategy. It will be one that will help relieve your financial hardships."

In addition, for those who are able to make the payments before they are due, the company will not be requiring any prepay fees. There will actually be no worries about any hidden fees when clients work with

The spokesperson further explained that the financial assistance being offered are for those times when people find themselves faced with an unexpected bill. These include medical bills; expenses for holiday, vacation or business travel; unexpected repairs for the car or house; and school tuition fees. In short, this type of financial assistance is ideal for problems that are time-sensitive. But some people may also find it to be helpful for other routine necessities. The company will not meddle with how the client will be using the money. The client will have full control on how to use it.

Clients who have used the company's service have mostly positive things to say about the company. In fact, the company has an overall rating of 5.0 on their Google Maps page. Kristina S. who gave them a five star rating said, "Great service, quick process, and awesome customer service. That's what I would tell if people would ask me about this company. Thank God for this business who makes our lives easier. Definitely will recommend!"

Veronica B. also gave them five stars and said, "I was unemployed for over a month and was behind on my bills. I needed money to pay them off or else I'd get kick out of my apartment. After a thorough search, I found The Net Lender and I can't find enough good words to tell you how awesome they are. They will go out of their way to help you and give you peace of mind. Thank you to your amazing company and to your awesome staff!"

The requirements for applying are quite simple. These include the title of the vehicle, which should be clean and lien-free; the client's driver's license; proof of insurance; the client's address; the vehicle of which the client must have full ownership; proof of having a minimum income of $1,200 a month; and 18 years or older.

There may be some variation but clients can expect to get hold of the money within 24 hours. It will also depend on how quickly the necessary paperwork can be submitted in order to process the application.

The application process is composed of three simple steps. First, clients submit an application online to see if they qualify. The second step is for the client to prepare and submit the necessary documentation. And the third step is for the client to receive the money.

Those who require more information about the financial assistance offered can visit the TNL Houston #2 website or go here, or they can contact the company through the telephone or via email.
