August 19, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Frux Home and Yard?s Cheese Board and Knife Set, an eco-friendly product and an Amazon?s Choice badge awardee, has recently been tagged as a ?beautiful serving board? by an Amazon customer. The said statement was published via a product review, which was left by Teresa Harris last June, 2019.

Teresa bought the Cheese Board with Knife Set as a gift for her daughter?s housewarming party. After using the cheese board and seeing how nicely it presents the treats in a single setting, Teresa decided to buy one for herself as well. She also liked that it comes with a pull-out tray containing four different utensils.

About the Cheese Board and Knife Set

The Cheese Board and Knife Set is an environmentally-friendly alternative to plastic serving platters. Made out of 100% organic bamboo, the product is designed to reduce the carbon footprint, without sacrificing quality and longevity. In addition, bamboo is effective in repelling stains and odors from food.

The board comes with a mini-pull out drawer underneath, which houses four different knives. These knives are meant for specific purposes, mainly for slicing and grating cheese and its accompaniments on the cheese board. These include the chisel knife, cheese fork, narrow plane knife, and almond knife.

To date, 81% of its ratings are 5 stars, including that of Teresa's rating. To view more feedback and detailed product information, interested buyers can check out Frux Home and Yard's Cheese Board and Knife Set listing on Amazon or visit their website at FruXHomeandYard.com.
