Frux Home and Yard Silicone Oven Mitts Gets a 5-Star Rating for Having ?Really Good Quality?

August 21, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The top-rated Black Silicone Oven Mitts by Frux Home and Yard got a 5-star rating from a verified customer on Amazon for having excellent quality and actually protecting the person wearing them. The product review was created by Tory, an avid Amazon customer who purchased the Oven Mitts last March 2018.

Tory bought the Sili-Mitts, as they are fondly called, for his girlfriend. After first use, the former liked how it safeguards her hand against the heat of the oven. This is in contrast with the cheap oven mitts she used before, which weren't long enough that her skin got burned. Tory also tried the oven mitts himself and noticed how comfortable and how easy it was to slip them on and off. They also commended how the heat barely goes through the material, even if the food came fresh out of the oven.

Tory highly recommends the Frux Home and Yard Silicone Oven Mitts to anyone who's looking for a good pair.

About the product

FruX Home and Yard's SiliMitts are made from 100% BPA-Free Silicone from the outside. Inside is a soft and comfortable lining, which is made from a combination of cotton and polyester. The oven mitts are designed to resist up to 500°F or 260°C of heat and repel water for more convenient usage.

The SiliMitts is now listed on Amazon in four color variations namely black, blue, charcoal grey, and red. Interested buyers can check out the oven mitts on Amazon.com.
