

NeX Level Moving Opens New Location In Cedar Rapids

August 26, 2019

August 26, 2019 -
NeX Level Moving is excited to announce that they are officially opening their Cedar Rapids location. The Iowa moving company looks forward to bringing their expert services to local residents.

Company?s representative Adam Feldmann says, ?If you are planning on relocating to, from, or within the Cedar Rapids, Iowa area, you cannot go wrong with hiring NeX Level Moving to help you out. We?ve done a lot of moving and we know how much of a challenging process it can be. There is just so much to do and the logistics can be a nightmare. By trying to do all the moving yourself, you might just be adding to your stress. You should consider hiring a moving company?and we assure you, we?re the best choice you can make.?

Feldmann elaborates, ?It?s true. We have just officially opened NeX Level Moving but our purpose was absolute from the beginning: we want to provide a comprehensive list of services that will serve anyone?s moving needs at the best prices. Whatever you require, we are sure we can handle it.?

The company provides Local Moving, Cross Country Moving, Packing, Loading/Unloading, Freight Hauling, Junk Removal and Storage Assistance services. While most moving companies usually provide only a few of the services listed above due to certain limitations, NeX Level Moving is capable of providing all these services and more.

For instance, Feldmann assures customers that NeX?s team is already ready and willing to offer their assistance at every stage of the moving process. Not only does the team load, unload, pack, and unpack as necessary, they are also willing to share their knowledge on how to safely pack valuables to ensure they are safe. NeX Level Moving also offers rush services for clients who need moving done urgently.

Matt Clarke, another company representative, adds, ?This is the start of NeX Level Moving. Cedar Rapids is just the beginning, the first of many locations. We intend to become the best Cedar Rapids movers in the area and then expand NeX Level Moving as more customers become familiar with the quality of our services. We can confidently say that, across every future location, we will make sure we provide the best moving service you can get anywhere?just like we now do at Cedar Rapids.?

Despite being a new arrival in the area, NeX Level Moving has managed to already receive great reviews for their services. Peter H. says ?I?ve recently had to move out from the apartment I shared with my friends. The move was emotional enough for me without adding the extra stress of figuring out moving logistics. I hired NeX Level Moving to help me out and I can definitely say that these guys are incredible. They took care of everything, and went above and beyond to ensure that the move was as smooth as possible. Fantastic work and fantastic guys.?

Another client, Rita R. says ?The guys at NeX Level Moving were professional, almost to a fault. They arrived on time. They had the necessary tools to take care of everything, as well as moving pads, and were very careful with how they handled our stuff?which is important for me because I had some expensive lab equipment. They also worked for a little over four hours in total but only charged us for four because my brother-in-law and I helped them move some of the items. We were already happy because we are finally moving back home, but hiring NeX Level Moving was the cherry on top. We are immensely glad we hired them.?

As a final note, Clarke adds, ?If you are thinking of hiring us to do some moving for you, you can contact us for a quote via our website. It?s an easy process. If you want more assurance, you can also find more info on our local and cross country moves on the Chamber of Commerce website.?

Those who wish to learn more about NeX Level Moving and the services they provide can find the necessary information on the company?s website. In addition, NeX Level Moving also maintains a page on Facebook, where they post frequent updates and interact with their clients.
