August 23, 2019 -

Top We Buy Houses company based in Newport News, Virginia, has received yet another rave review from a client. Mr. Timothy Kelly sold his house to the real estate investment firm and described their service as excellent. He spoke about the experience and professionalism of the team. Mr. Kelly is the latest client in a long list of property owners in and around the city who have dealt with Evan Roberts and his team at Dependable Homebuyers. Most clients have given five star reviews over the years and have been totally content with the services of the We Buy Houses company.

Speaking about the latest review, Evan Roberts expressed gratitude and said that the same quality of service awaits every property owner who wants to sell their house directly to his firm. Mr. Roberts, who is the founder and the owner of the company, pointed out that many clients have had identical experiences in the past. Ms. Megan Donovan had reviewed their service recently and endorsed their expertise wholeheartedly. In a telephonic conversation, Ms. Donovan said that Evan with his entire team is very helpful, always available and provides the most pragmatic suggestions about everything related to selling a house in Newport News.

Ms. Donovan further added that the firm has a lucid understanding of ground realities and always listens to every query a client may have. She did not have much familiarity with selling houses but given the expertise and experience of Evan and his team, the entire process was effortless and truly satiating for her. Other clients who have dealt with Dependable Homebuyers in the recent past have shared similar experiences. All clients highlight the professionalism and expertise of the team. Roberts has said that it is their intention to be always available and truly accessible. He and his team want to truly be of assistance in any manner they can be to simplify the process of selling a house. The company offers a turnkey solution so homeowners do not have to deal with any usual hurdle. The We Buy Houses company assists homeowners to sell their residential properties. Roberts and his team take up all the responsibilities, from viewing and inspection to evaluating the fair price, making the cash offer to drafting the sale agreement, getting a title company to transfer ownership and crediting the full amount in a lump sum payment. There is no part payment. Homeowners do not pay any service fee, commission or closing cost. No real estate agent is involved in the process. There is no listing online. It is a direct deal that is expedited to be closed in just seven to ten business days.

Dependable Homebuyers is not looking for the swankiest properties in prime locations. It has a history of buying all types of houses in every condition imaginable. Homeowners do not have to stage their properties or improve anything. One call and the whole process can be initiated with only the seller and the buyer involved in the deal.
