Navarre, FL. ? Terence Gross of Gross & Schuster, P.A. has recently celebrated 40 years as a lawyer. Terence Gross practices personal injury law at the successful firm, which has several locations in the Panhandle area. His dedication to his profession has contributed to an outstanding career.

Terence Gross graduated from Washington University in 1976, and law school in 1979. He has since handled thousands of cases dealing with automobile negligence and personal injury. In 2002, he partnered with Charles Schuster to begin Gross & Schuster P.A., a personal injury law firm in Navarre. Terence?s sons, Marcus and Tyler have since joined the firm.

Gross stays involved in the legal community alongside his practice. He often lectures at Pensacola State College, Florida State University College of Law, and Cumberland School of Law. Gross also conducts seminars for Florida attorneys regarding personal injury cases. Terence regularly hosts talk shows on local radio stations as well.

One of Gross?s most outstanding achievements is the AV-rated Martindale-Hubbell. This rating is awarded to attorneys who are exceptionally reviewed and rated by fellow lawyers and clients alike. It is the top rating for lawyers based on their proficient legal skills and ethics.

As Gross developed his career as a Navarre car accident lawyer, there is one concept he stresses in his firm: education. Gross states, ?the more our client knows, the better off we all are.? He has dedicated himself to ensuring that each client he has is aware of all laws and legal proceedings that will take place in their case. In this way, Gross takes incredible care of his clients.

Gross & Schuster?s clients have greatly benefitted from this mindset revolving around education. Carole P., a client of Terrence Gross, had this to say about working with him: ?He is clearly experienced in his field and made the process as simple and understandable as possible. I highly recommended him if you are need of an attorney.?

Terence Gross has worked hard to earn the trust of his clients. For more information about Terence Gross or services provided at Gross & Schuster P.A., call their Navarre office at (850) 244-7191, or visit www.grossandschuster.com.
