August 23, 2019 -
Pensacola, FL. ? Terence Gross of Gross & Schuster P.A., a personal injury law firm in Pensacola, has served as a board-certified personal injury lawyer for 40 years this year. His career has been evidence of a successful and meaningful contribution to his community, a landmark certainly worth celebrating,

After obtaining his undergraduate degree from Washington University in 1976, Gross entered law school and graduated in 1979. He handled several thousand cases regarding personal injury lawsuits. In 2002, Charles Schuster and Terence Gross formed Gross & Shuster, P.A. Later, Marcus and Tyler Gross joined the firm after obtaining their law degrees.

Gross & Schuster has grown to include five locations in the Gulf Coast area. They specialize in personal injury cases dealing with automobile accidents, animal attacks, maritime, premises liability, and even wrongful death. Their superior service and expertise have earned them an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau.

Terrence Gross has earned himself several prestigious awards, the forerunner being an AV-Rated

Martindale-Hubbell rating. This rating is reserved for lawyers who have received extraordinary reviews from clients and fellow lawyers alike. It is awarded exclusively to lawyers who have not only received amazing reviews but hold to a standard of excellence.

Gross?s dedication is also demonstrated in the numerous activities he?s involved in that keep him up to date with the legal world. Gross regularly lectures at state colleges in the area and speaks at seminars held for other attorneys. He even hosts radio programs where he discusses legal topics to inform listeners.

Clients of Gross & Schuster are rarely disappointed when working with them. Coretta Ward was one of those clients, and she had nothing but good things to say about the Pensacola personal injury law firm. ?Very personable and very knowledgeable. They are thorough and explain to you what's going on step by step. A family-oriented business who truly cares about what's best for you. If you need a personal injury attorney in Florida, don't hesitate to call them!"

Terence Gross and the lawyers at Gross & Schuster will continue to treat each client they have with the utmost care and respect. For more information about Gross & Schuster, call their office at (850) 434-3333 or visit www.grossandschuster.com.
