August 26, 2019 -

The most reliable We Buy Houses company in Fort Myers, Dependable Homebuyers has received yet another five star review from a homeowner. Mr. Timothy Kelly joins a long list of clients who have sold their residential properties to the real estate investment firm owned by Evan Roberts. Mr. Kelly said in his review that the company delivers on its promises. The experts are truly professional and have unmatched experience. Endorsing the service offered by Evan Roberts and his team, Mr. Kelly said that their excellence and resources simplified the whole process of liquidating his real estate asset.

The founder of the We Buy Houses company, Evan Roberts responded to the review and thanked Mr. Kelly. Mr. Roberts says that his firm is committed to assisting homeowners to sell their houses for a fair price, without any involvement of realtors or listing services. He further adds that the review only reiterates what other clients have experienced over the years. Dependable Homebuyers has a distinct ability to do away with all the complexities of selling houses in and around Fort Myers. One of the key reasons is their independence. The private investment company does not work under influence of third parties, whether real estate agents or investors. The firm makes its own decisions and has a steadfast approach. The turnaround time for selling a house is shortest when homeowners deal directly with Dependable Homebuyers.

The firm has been receiving rave reviews from many clients in the last few months. Ms. Megan Donovan endorsed their services wholeheartedly and pointed out how the whole team lead by Evan Roberts is always accessible. She appreciated the fact that Roberts too was available to answer her queries and provide all relevant information. Many homeowners are not completely familiar with the nitty-gritty of selling houses in Fort Myers. Awareness is quintessential and Dependable Homebuyers presents all necessary resources to make the whole process easy and quick. There is no room for uncertainty or ambiguity. Here's a recent press release they published.

One of the attributes of Dependable Homebuyers that has helped the firm carve out a niche for itself is the turnaround time. The company can buy houses in a span of one week. Seven business days are what they need to complete the sale after the deal is finalized. Many sales are completed earlier. This follows a prompt purchase offer from the company post an inspection. Most homeowners get a cash offer within twenty four hours of the viewing. Homeowners have the liberty to choose a convenient schedule for the sale. They can sell immediately or choose a date as per their plan of moving out.

Dependable Homebuyers is interested in all types of houses. The location or the condition of a residential property does not become a deal breaker. A house in any condition is acceptable and it is purchased in that very state. No repair or renovation is necessary. Homeowners turned sellers do not have to worry about staging either. The firm does not charge any commission or service fee. The entire sum quoted in the cash offer is what the seller receives. The closing cost is paid by the We Buy Houses company.
