

Plantation Homes Now Featured On Builder Hot Spots

January 23, 2020

January 23, 2020 -
Plano, TX based Builder Hot Spots is pleased to announce that Plantation Homes is being featured on their website. A developer that is known for their conscientious approach to home building, the company is being highlighted for their ongoing contributions to the homebuilding industry.

As Plantation Homes states, they are ?part of the McGuyer Homebuilders, Inc. (MHI) family, an award-winning company that includes Coventry Homes and Wilshire Homes, and has been a vital part of the Texas homebuilding industry since 1988. Through their long history, MHI has built over 50,000 homes, with a strong presence in each of Texas? major markets: Houston, Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin and San Antonio. The company consistently ranks among the nation?s top new-home builders in the nation.?

Currently, the company is building and selling new homes in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. In particular, new homes are available in Parkside East, Parkside West, Viridian, Somerset, Union Park, South Pointe, Trailwood, and many more. Interested parties may visit the developer?s official website for a full list of the neighborhoods they build in. Conveniently, the website also features a map with precise locations for each home, and visitors may use the utility to gain a bird?s eye view of the surrounding areas as well.

While Plantation Homes has a stable of beautiful, pre-built homes waiting for new residents, the developer believes that their true strength lies in working side by side with clients to build the home of their dreams. Clients find that the company gives them access to personnel with a wealth of experience and expertise in designing homes built to precise specifications. While Plantation Homes is able to make suggestions they believe would complement the future owner the best, they maintain that the final decision is always the client?s.

They state, ?Early in the homebuilding process, Design Center personnel will contact you about scheduling time for you to meet with a design professional at the center. Making design decisions early can keep home construction on schedule.? They add that, ?Each buyer works exclusively with a design professional, who will recommend products and finishes to suit personal tastes and lifestyles. Flooring, cabinetry, countertops, appliances, plumbing and light fixtures?even home technology?the Design Center is a value-added stop along the journey to your perfect home.?

Future homeowners with an eye on the future may also be pleased to learn that Plantation Homes is able to implement smart home technology in the homes they build. Aiming to reach as well as set new 21st century standards in smart home design, the company seeks to deliver a smarter living experience with more comfort and convenience, while maintaining a similarly high standard in safety and security. They state, ?In keeping with current home trends and our commitment to offering the best possible product, we now build new homes for sale with the smart home technology needed for the 21st century.?

Cat Nguyen of Builder Hot Spots says, ?We have worked with Plantation Homes for some time and they have proven themselves more than capable of delivering dream homes to house enthusiastic new homeowners. A home is where the heart is, and Plantation puts a lot of heart into every home they build.? Interested parties may view a full list of available homes and the neighborhoods that Plantation Homes builds in by visiting Builder Hotspots website as well. Additionally, visitors may look up Build Hot Spots complete Builders Directory.

This statement is backed up by the testimonials from homeowners who worked with Plantation Homes. ?Everything seems perfect,? says the Brahmin family, for instance. ?This being our new home, we are excited and the deal met our expectations.?

Similarly, new homeowners Ricardo and Monica say, ?Our sales counselor was extremely professional, informative, and attentive to all our needs. Every step of the way, she was intent on making the process as easy and smooth for us as possible. Our construction manager was excellent throughout?very professional and extremely meticulous and detail-oriented with our entire building process. We can't thank them enough for building the home of our dreams for our family!?

Interested parties may visit their website to learn more about Plantation Homes and browse the homes they have on offer. Those who wish to make further inquiries may also contact Cat Nguyen of Builder Hot Spots.
