

Stor-Room Offers Commercial Storage

September 04, 2019

September 04, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Stor-Room is now offering commercial storage options for both large and small businesses, as well as non-profits. There are many different reasons that a business may need space to store goods, and it is the mission of Stor-Room to be able to provide a safe space for these businesses, as they have enhanced security options and a friendly staff on site 365 days of the year. The company is able to provide options for those with many different types of inventory needs, whether they only need space for small amounts of items or need large amounts of space.

Among the many different types of options available for commercial storage are options for businesses with overflow in merchandise. Stor-Room can provide storage for those who need space to hold on to their excess merchandise so that they have a space to keep anything from clothing to electronics clean, dry, and airtight. Other types of items that can be kept in storage with Stor-Room include paperwork, such as the kind that might be required by doctor's offices, or other large businesses or corporations. At Stor-Room, the documentation is kept safe and secure so that businesses can be confident in knowing that they never have to worry about this documentation falling into the wrong hands.

Stor-Room is a fully licensed, bonded, and insured company, so businesses and non-profits that choose to work with them can feel confident in knowing that they are always secure in their investment. In addition to providing for their storage needs, Stor-Room can also provide other materials, such as packing supplies, as well as vehicles to help with moving items from space to space. This makes it a simpler process to move excess inventory, documentation, or any other items that need to be taken care of.

Stor-Room understand the needs that businesses may have as a small business itself, and works closely with businesses to help them as a commercial storage provider. Those interested in working with Stor-Room for their storage needs can contact them to learn more about what the company can do for them, what can be provided to them, and how the company can help them with the various solutions that they have available.
