Best Lotion for Stretch Marks Video Debuts on Stretch Marks 101 You Tube Channel

July 28, 2015

July 28, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Stretch Marks 101 is announcing the release of a new video, Best Lotion for Stretch Marks, on its Stretch Marks 101 YouTube Channel. Stretch Marks 101 was originally created to help people gain knowledge about stretch marks and also to answer frequently asked questions about them.

The video is 41 seconds long and lends a hand to the latest and greatest lotion to apply to those pesky stretch marks. The lotion, Bella Joi Stretch Mark Cream, is made with a formula of moisturizing butters, antioxidants, and oils created by a naturopathic physician. The cream can be found online at Amazon.com.

"Bella Joi Stretch Mark Cream helps both prevent stretch marks and reduces the appearance of existing stretch marks to nourish, repair and refresh a woman's belly and skin during and after pregnancy," according to the product description on Amazon.com.

It contains cocoa, shea and mango butters that work in tandem with antioxidants and oils to help moisturize and heal your skin, naturally. Bell Joi Stretch Mark Cream advertises that there is no residue or greasy feeling after applying the lotion because it is quickly absorbed by the skin.

"Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back. If you aren't happy for any reason just return the product for a full refund," according to the listing information on Amazon.com

Bella Joi Stretch Mark Cream is made locally in the United States in an FDA approved, GMP certified lab.

The original cost of Bella Joi Stretch Mark Cream, available in a 4 ounce bottle, is $29.99. It is now on sale on Amazon for $19.99 with free shipping on orders over $35.00. The link to Bella Joi Stretch Cream can be found underneath Stretch Mark 101's "Best Lotion for Stretch Marks" You Tube video.
