September 19, 2019

September 19, 2019 -
NeX Level Moving, a company of professional movers based out of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is pleased to announce that they have been acknowledged as a member of Iowa?s top rated movers. Established only recently, the company has been doing excellent work, according to the highly positive reviews from their clients.

NeX Level Moving provides a comprehensive list of services, including Local Moving, Cross Country Moving, Packing, Loading/Unloading, Freight Hauling, Junk Removal, and Storage Assistance services. Most modern moving companies usually only provide a partial list of the services listed above, due to certain limitations. However, NeX Level Moving is one of the few moving companies that provide all these services and more.

Matt Clarke, a representative for NeX Level Moving, says, ?Cedar Rapids is meant to be the start of NeX Level Moving and we are proud to say that in the short time we?ve been serving the community, we have managed to gain their trust and respect. We set out with the aim of becoming Iowa's best moving company and we feel we?re more than halfway there. We knew what we wanted to do from the beginning: to provide an all-inclusive service that will meet the community?s moving needs at the best prices. I think this policy played a large part in our company?s success.?

In addition, Clarke also assures customers that their team is ready and willing to help their clients throughout every step of the moving process. Clarke says, ?Not only does our team load, unload, pack, and unpack your items as necessary, but they are also willing to teach you how to safely pack valuables to ensure they are kept safe during the moving process.? NeX Level Moving also offers rush services for clients who need moving done urgently.

Furthermore, Clarke states that NeX Level Moving has perfected the actual moving process itself. Using every tool available to them, including moving pads, dollys, stair rollers, and more, NeX Level Moving is able to ensure the safety of their customers? belongings. Their safety first approach, Clarke believes, is one of the many things that differentiate them from other moving companies and has allowed them to gain the trust of the local community.

Adam Feldmann, another representative for NeX Level Moving, says, ?NeX Level Moving takes pride in exceeding our customers' expectations. From houses to apartments, high-rises, condos, dorms and office buildings?whatever it is, our team can handle the job. You have no need to bother your family and friends. Just contact us! NeX Level Moving is here to ease the burden of moving and, when you hire us, we guarantee you a professional, safe, affordable, and stress free move!?

This perspective is backed up by their customer reviews. Kelly Stanfield says in her Facebook review, ?We hired NeX Level Moving for a local move and were beyond pleased with the service! Adam was super helpful setting up arrangements and helping us select exactly what we needed help with. The 3 guys that came to move us were punctual, kind, and hard workers. They were so polite, and more than willing to do whatever we asked. Our job was done on time and the cost associated with the service was exceptional! I highly recommend NeX Level Moving!?

Another review on Facebook, by Derek Peck, reads ?Was very painless to schedule. Quick responses. The crew arrived on time, prepared, and were a great help! They did an amazing job and I couldn't be more pleased with Nex Level. Thank you for everything! It really made the move easier.?

A review by Michael O. on the website MovingHelp, dedicated to collecting reviews for moving companies, reads, ?I was scheduled for 11 am, but Adam called me prior to let me know they were running a bit behind. Movers showed up at noon, took them about 40 min to unload what was left. Glad I paid for 2 hours! Still, I would call them again.?

Those who wish to hire NeX Level Moving may get in touch with Adam Feldmann or Matt Clarke. Interested parties who want more information about the company or Long Distance moving quotes may find the necessary information on the company?s website. In addition, NeX Level Moving also maintains a page on Facebook where they post frequent updates, share pictures from their jobs and interact with their clients.
