Company representative Rob Morris states, ?When you sell a home with Fast Home Sales, you avoid much of the hassle that the more conventional real estate market is infamous for.? In addition to promising a much faster sales process, the company takes away much of the need for preparation that homeowners are typically required to carry out.

Morris continues, ?You may be under the impression that you will have to put up with cleaning your house from top to bottom and pouring in money, time, and effort for renovations?to say nothing of the sheer inconvenience it will cause you and your family if you are still in residence.? He adds that homeowners are often expected to make these investments on their own and receive little to no help, especially if they are hoping to get the most value for their property out of the sale.

?Crucially,? he points out, ?sellers in this position often forget to take the full extent of their expenditures into account. Your renovations may cost more than you expect, for instance, or you may have to have your house professionally cleaned more than once if the selling process takes too long. There have even been cases where homeowners tried to commit repairs on their own and had to pay medical bills after suffering an unfortunate accident. None of this takes into account the multiple fees you will have to pay either, such as to the realtor you hire?or even the food and other amenities you may have to lay out if you have an open house.? More information can be found here: https://www.fasthomesales.com/south-carolina/we-buy-houses-charleston-sc/.

With Fast Home Sales, however, none of this is necessary. Morris says, ?To put it shortly, our sales process often goes like this: you notify us that you would like to sell your house. We?ll then visit you and inspect the property before we offer make you a non-obligatory offer. At that point, you may choose to immediately take us up on it and we?ll take care of everything else, including all the related paperwork. Most importantly, however, you should know that you?re under no pressure to commit to us or take what we offer. Whether you need to think about it for two weeks or two months, you can let us know how you wish to proceed at your pace. You can even walk away, and we?ll be pleased to let you know what your other options are too.?

As the company states on their website, ?Over the course of several years, we have successfully completed many real estate transactions, which means we have the knowledge and resources to solve your real estate problem; no matter the condition of the house. When we say that we want to help you solve your real estate problem, we mean it, because your interests always come first with us!? Notably, the company is even willing to make fair offers for houses that have tenants in residence?or take the appropriate measures to evict problem tenants if necessary.

Morris notes, ?One of the biggest issues that home sellers face is how long it takes to move a home on the real estate market. It often takes months to sell a home, and that is if you are lucky enough to own a property that is in-demand or well-situated. If not, it?s not unheard of for properties to take periods measured in years to change hands.? He notes that this is often far too long a period for people to wait, which is why the company makes it their mission to emphasize the ?fast? in Fast Home Sales when they work with a client.

?With us,? he says, ?your sale can be completed in a matter of weeks, not months, guaranteed. If you?re in a rush and require us to work even faster, just let us know. If everything goes well, you may only have to wait days instead of weeks.? He adds, ?We?d love to go over the benefits you stand to gain working with us in as much detail as you require, so feel free to contact us whenever you please.?
