Corpus Christi, TX based Galvan Builders is delighted to announce the release of their new blog post. It sets out eight benefits of using asphalt shingle as well as the advantages and disadvantages of using clay tile, allowing residents, property management, and commercial property owners to decide which is the best choice for them. The company is always happy to help answer a customer's questions.

David Galvan, Co-Owner at Galvan Builders, said, "We have served Corpus Christi and its surrounding areas for nearly 40 years. We know better than most that the choice of roofing material and style has one of the biggest impacts on the look of your home. We have experience working with virtually every roofing material and in every situation imaginable. We've earned the trust from our customers, one roof at a time."

The company offers only the best commercial roofing services and materials. Many businesses rely on Galvan Builders to help manage all the details and decisions which have to be made regarding their roofs because they know they can save money and much of their time relying on a proven expert.

Recently, the company launched a new website, is designed from the ground up to work across any platform. It even provides customers the ability to call the company directly from the site. They can supply and install any type of metal or tile roof for residents and commercial properties, in addition to siding, gutters, windows, and doors.

Street Insider, a leading online news sources, recently featured the company and their glowing 5-star review from Veronica Trevino, who stated she would definitely recommend the company to anyone who may need roof construction carried out. She said the company did an excellent job installing a new roof in a timely manner and keeping her informed throughout the process. Nearly all their customer reviews across every online platform give top marks for the company's hard working team, their dedication, and the quality of their work. In the article, Galvan was quoted saying, "We always aim to do our best work for our customers. We prioritize quality, trust, and customer service. When you are in the business of working on people's homes, you can't do anything less. We have a team of highly-skilled roofers whose aim is to give every single client of ours the exact roofing solution they need. Successfully completing a project to a client's satisfaction and being shown appreciation in the form of happy smiles and great reviews is what drives us as a company and as people."

Those who face the challenge of replacing a roof will be pleased to learn that the company offers a free bid on a brand new roof and can work with their customers' insurance companies. The company has decades of experience working with insurance carriers and can help their customers get the best deal possible.

In her Google review, April Ocañas gave the company top marks as well and said, "I had the best experience with the Galvan Builders construction company. My home was in need of a new roof and the thought of finding an honest construction company was unheard of. We interviewed many companies and didn't feel comfortable with any of them until we met with David and Dina Galvan. They were honest and humble and went out of their way to help us and meet our needs and price point. Their work is top notch and done in a timely manner. I highly recommend them and will use them again for any of our future construction needs."

Galvan responded, "We are delighted every time we get feedback from our customers and are grateful that they take the time to recommend us. We do our best to help them get a roof to last a lifetime and are happy to answer any questions. We are delighted to help everyone in the community and no job, not even the simplest repair is too small, because it may become a much bigger problem if it's not fixed properly. We will be there when you need us most, even with the insurance claim process."
