Solarus Tech Extends Services to Non-Profit Entities

September 18, 2019

September 18, 2019 -
Computer support and services firm, Solarus Tech, extends its high-quality services to non-profit entities to express their care and compassion towards different causes in the US.

The team from Solarus Tech all share one goal: to provide the best possible IT support. This goal is true for all of the clients that they serve worldwide, including non-profit organizations.

On their website, Solarus says, ?We know that many companies say that their service is great and that they care. Often, we find out the truth through actions. So we want to ?say and act,? showing our passion to both a leadership with cutting edge technology and act to perform our services for you? We are also proud of our work in the Non-profit sector. This allows us to give to those in need and provide high standard of quality work.?

These groups have various causes such as providing adequate housing, preservation of animals, promoting democracy and justice, disease research, and so on.

Among those non-profit organizations that Solarus Tech is currently servicing are:

Habitat For Humanity

Nassau County, NY

Suffolk County, NY

Riverhead Foundation

Brennan Center For Justice

Tourettes Association of America

CP Nassau

American Heart Association

March of Dimes
