July 30, 2015 -

Bolton?s local beauty salon owner Shushilia Chauhan has launched a new website: www.escalabeauty.co.uk. Escala Beauty is a unisex beauty and therapy salon situated on Deane Road near Bolton town centre, and they provide the most luxurious and tranquilizing therapies. From a Galvanic facial to a Hotpotli massage, Escala Beauty has qualified and professional beauticians with seven years experience who aim to give clients a relaxing experience. Now with Escala Beauty's new website, clients can see all their treatments, latest crazes and beauty tips.

Escala Beauty provides a range of beauty therapies, treatments, and massages that will leave their clients calm and satisfied. One of the beauty salon?s most popular treatments is the Hotpotli massage. This massage uses a unique technique with medicinal blended herbs wrapped and tied in fragrant bundles, which are steamed and pressed against the body releasing relaxing essential oils. Other treatments include waxing, manicures, pedicures, head massages, hair and makeup packages, and the special Hopi Ear candle therapy. Escala beauticians work in a hygienic environment leaving clients feeling satisfied.

Shushila Chauhan, better known as Shushy by her clients, says, ?I want to my clients to feel rejuvenated when they leave Escala Beauty. I provide the most luxurious massages and therapies including some authentic Indian treatments, such as the Indian head massage. My regular clients love it.?

Jo Williamson, Shushila?s client shared her experience at the salon: ?Superb massage from Shushy, neck feels better already after 7 weeks of pain and no sleep. Shushy makes you feel at ease as soon as you walk through the door, will definitely keep up with weekly visits. ?

Escala Beauty is open from Tuesday to Saturday with regular beauty offers available and discounts for senior citizens, loyal customers, and students.
