September 26, 2019 -

Melbourne, Victoria based property investment company Equity Gain is pleased to announce the launch of their brand new website. The company, a leading provider of property investment services across Australia, hopes that their new website will offer a convenient portal for their clients to learn about, and contract, the services they offer.

Michael Brown, a representative for Equity Gain, says, "At Equity Gain, our goal is to help our clients build wealth through smart property investments so they can achieve long-term financial security. What we provide is a complete end-to-end solution for anyone looking to invest in property. We provide all the advice you need, whether you are just starting out on your property investing journey, looking to purchase property for a self managed super fund, or even an experienced investor who wants to expand their portfolio. With the launch of our brand new website, we're hoping to make life easier for our clients."

According to Equity Gain, the website allows interested parties to learn about everything the company can do for their clients. It also features a selection of educational material, covering topics such as Property Investment, Property Finance, Property Unit Trust, and Self-Managed Super Fund Investments. The company also points out that the website can be used to book appointments.

Brown says, "With Equity Gain, you're just three steps away from achieving your goals. Step one is to claim your free strategy session with us?this is simple, you can do it by visiting our website. It's right there on the front page. During the free strategy session, we will assign a qualified property investment strategist to you so that we can understand your situation, desired lifestyle, and personal finance goals and give you the right property investment advice."

He continues, "Step two is to create a customized plan that is tailor-made for you and your needs. After your session with our investment strategist where we go over your needs and preferences in detail, we will develop a strategic retirement roadmap specific to your investment needs and lifestyle goals. We'll do all the work, so you don't need to worry. Step three is simply achieving financial security! Once we've created your customised plan and you have it in hand, you're well on your way to financial security. But we don't stop there, no. Equity Gain will stand by your side and guide you through every stage of your property investment journey so you can accelerate your retirement plans without any hassle.?

Equity Gain's services have garnered them a positive reputation among their clients, as evidenced by the company's online reviews. On Facebook, Eleni McKenna says, "I have personally been working with Equity Gain for the past two years and every single dealing I have had has been fantastic. Michael Brown and his team are great at what they do. Every aspect of their process is great and, as a property investment manager, I could not think of a better client to work with. I am really excited for what the future holds for us both, look forward to a continued business relationship. I would highly recommend Equity Gain to any investor in a heartbeat.?"

In another review, Kelly Walsh says, "I have worked within the investment and building industry now for 20 years, and specifically with Equity Gain for 10 years, and they really do look after their clients from start to finish. They are extremely critical when it comes to the properties that they offer their clients, as they must meet all of their criteria or they are knocked back. I have found through working with Equity Gain that they are one of the most professional companies in this space, and I would highly recommend them to anyone looking to improve their financial position.?"

Those interested in learning more about Equity Gain and the services they provide can find more information in the company's new website. Interested parties can also contact Michael Brown directly to inquire further. In addition to the new website, Equity Gain also maintains a presence on Facebook, where they frequently post tips, educational videos, and informative articles.
