About SFI Compliance

SFI Compliance was born out of the need for small companies in the construction industry who couldn?t hire full time safety and compliance staff. They needed some help in designing their safety and compliance programs and SFI Compliance was formed to meet that necessity, and those goals. It provides nationwide safety programs, safety training, first aid & safety products, OSHA compliance consulting, site evaluations, and first aid. For more info, visit the SFI Compliance website for more information.
