Indiana Preferred Home Buyers, the most reliable We Buy Houses company in Indiana, has received another five-star review. Shawn Marjanian has sold his house to the real estate investment company, is elated at the entire process and looks forward to seeing how the company brings new life into the property. Mr. Marjanian stated, "When I was looking to sell my childhood home, it was important for me to sell it to someone who was going to breathe new life into it, and not just renovate it in a cookie-cutter fashion. Out of all the home buyers I spoke with, Indiana Preferred Home Buyers gave me the best feeling about this. Al was direct, friendly, informative, and funny. He always responded in a timely fashion. He was honest about what to expect, including the time frame and what needs to happen. His professionalism and personality made me feel confident not only in my decision but also in recommending him to others. It went very quickly, which was great because we were moving. This process can be daunting and frightening, but Al Perez really helped put my mind at ease. I cannot wait to see his craftsmanship on my former old home!"

Mr. Marjanian is one more client joining the long list of Indiana homeowners who have sold their houses using the services of Al Perez and his team at Indiana Preferred Home Buyers. More information about the company can be found here <https://www.indianapreferredhomebuyers.com/we-buy-houses-crown-point/>.

Al Perez, who is the founder and owner of the real estate investment company, has said that their willingness to go the extra mile with their unique approach is what separates the company from other Indiana home buying companies. Clients are treated to a wealth of experience when working with Indiana Preferred Home Buyers. The company has worked hard over the years to secure the knowledge, and resourcefulness needed to make the home buying experience the best possible for every homeowner. Perez routinely interacts with all their clients and provide them every piece of relevant information so the homeowners can make the best choices possible for their situation.

Indiana Preferred Home Buyers has achieved a tremendous amount of success in creating an optional home selling method for Indiana homeowners who want to sell their houses quickly and avoid selling the traditional route. There is no commission to be paid to a realtor. The closing cost is taken care of by the firm. Unlike the big national brands, there is never any service fees. Another homeowner, Ms. Judy S. of Merrillville has recently sold her Dad's house to the company. She endorses Al Perez and his team and had this to say about the experience, "We needed some help with selling my dad's house in the Merrillville area. We came across Al and this company by searching the internet and are so lucky we did. Al made the whole process very quick and easy and worked with our timeline. He was very respectful to us, and more importantly, to my dad who was giving up a home with more than 50 years of memories. Thank you, Al, for making a difficult decision a little easier!"
