

Top Rated Chicago Auto Body Shop Announces Complete Collision Shop Revamp

October 09, 2019

Logan Square, Illinois - October 09, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Chicago Autohaus, one of the top rated Chicago shops for car body repair, has announced that they have just finished a complete revamp. They have rebuilt and expanded the entire shop as well as launched a new updated website. As part of their expansion, Chicago Autohaus now also offers in-house car rental by Hertz Rental Cars.

Saif Yasin, owner of Chicago Autohaus, says, "We are an authorized repair facility for numerous nationwide insurance agencies. We take great pride in providing the very best collision repair services so that the biggest names in the auto insurance industry can have full faith in not only our quality services but also our outstanding customer service."

He continues, "We are excited to announce that we have had a complete revamp; rebuilding and expanding the entire shop as well as creating a brand new updated website. With the expansion, Chicago Autohaus now offers in-house car rental by Hertz Rental Cars."

Saif Yasin points out that car accidents do happen and this could transform a once beautiful car into something that is ugly, under-performing or unusable for a number of days. That is why Chicago Autohaus offers collision repair services. Collision repair can include bumper and fender repair, windshield replacement, auto detailing, accident restoration, and auto painting.

In addition, the car body repair company also provides general automotive repair. These include general maintenance, oil change, electrical repair, wheels and tires services, balancing and alignment, calipers, brake repair, shocks and suspension, AC & heating repair services, and muffler services.

Chicago Autohaus offers a comprehensive assessment for auto repair and collision services. The car is first brought to the shop and the extent of the damage is assessed and they will then make some recommendations whether there is a need to replace certain body parts, or proceed with the auto body repair and servicing. The recommendations from the company will depend on the extent of the damages and what would be best for a particular client. The company will also ensure that as much of the original equipment will be retained and all of the obvious car exterior damages, including dents, dings, and scratches, will be repaired.

The company also provides custom auto body work for serious damages. They offer various repair bundled packages that will take care of minor repairs to complete service vehicle customization. They also provide car restoration services for classic and high end vehicles, hot rods, and muscle cars.

Chicago Autohaus also provides a wide range of vehicle painting to custom auto paint services. They offer various paint packages that are aimed at restoring the car back to its original attractive state, or even better. They make sure that only the areas of the car paint that require repair or touch up will be worked on in order to save money for car owners. They can perform a masking process that will permit the new paint to blend with the stock paint. Custom and premium paint can also be provided, including a bundled scratch repair, priming and sanding services the prepare the auto body surface for premium paint application.

Customers of Chicago Autohaus have given the company mostly five stars. In fact, to date, the company has garnered 115 five star reviews on various places around the web. For instance, on Google, Lacoie D. gave them a five star rating and said, "Highly recommend this company to anyone looking to repair their car! Great customer service, great prices, and overall they get the job done! They are true professionals! I brought my 2018 Audi in for repair and I have to tell you guys it runs and drives better than ever! Also, I got the car back in no time. Most companies make you wait nearly a month but these guys were on top of their game! I am so thankful for these guys."
