October 16, 2019 -
Corefront Homes Inc., a Calgary based company that specializes in home renovations, would like to announce that they are offering free designer consultations for those interested in carrying out a kitchen renovation. The company is considered one of the top home renovation services in Calgary and puts a lot of emphasis on providing high quality service to every client.

?Our goal is to provide the best service in Calgary?s renovation industry ensuring clarity, integrity and transparency,? says the company. ?We will be walking with you every step of the way through this exciting journey. As a full service construction management company, we ensure that every detail of your project receives the best care in the industry.?

Whether one needs to renovate their kitchen for reasons involving functionality or they are simply tired of the same old kitchen, Corefront asserts they are here to help. With a team of highly experienced, professional designers and skilled tradespeople, the company is guaranteed to help homeowners in Calgary create the perfect kitchen. Corefront understands that the kitchen is where families and friends connect and interact over a meal. The kitchen is, for many people, the center of the home and some of the most important moments in the life of a family happen there. With this in mind, the company strives to ensure that the kitchen is not only aesthetically pleasing to look at but also fully functional?and remains so for the foreseeable future.

?At Corefront, we treat your kitchen renovation with the utmost care. This renovation is as important to us as your valuable kitchen space is to the balance of you, your family, and to the rest of your home,? says Corefront. They are willing to sit down and discuss each client?s kitchen renovation and what steps are needed to guarantee a beautiful, fully functional, and enjoyable kitchen that will remain beautiful and functional for years to come.

Design is possibly the most important step before one starts the kitchen renovation process. The company works with a number of partners with premium design experience, and is currently offering free designer consultations to those interested in renovating their kitchen. ?We will hand pick which designer is the best fit for your scope of kitchen and also your personality. Our designer will spend much needed time in order to take your kitchen from concept to construction drawings,? says the renovation service. Read more about their Calgary home renovations online.

Corefront has been carrying out a variety of renovation and construction projects for years. The company places a strong emphasis on building customer relationships and producing high quality custom pieces for their clients. They rely on a foundation of highly qualified staff to carry out their work, and their team consists of various skilled personnel whose attention to detail ensures that every aspect of their clients? renovations are looked after from design to construction.

A number of clients have worked with Corefront and seen positive results. Many of these clients have left positive reviews online praising the great service they received. ?We had our basement renovated,? states one such review by a client named Emily. ?We choose Corefront out of three companies we interviewed because they listened to what we wanted and made it happen. They were polite and communicated well with us. We did have a few concerns; however, these were dealt with promptly and professionally. We are very pleased with our basement. We recommend Corefront without hesitation.?

Another client, Stan, is quoted saying, ?The Corefront team did a great job on this renovation. The completion was on time and the project team kept us updated on a regular basis. The designer used by Corefront used our thoughts and expressed the wish to craft a modern design in the home. This was enhanced by the clean lines as executed by the Corefront team that changed our house into an open concept that is both spacious and warm. A great job upgrading our home.?

Calgary residents who may be considering a kitchen renovation sometime in the near future are encouraged to contact Corefront. The company?s free designer consultations will help clients come up with a clear vision of what exactly they want to do with their kitchen. Clients may also contact Lewis Cowie of Corefront Homes Inc. to follow up on any further inquiries.
