October 28, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Calgary-based roofing company, No Payne Roofing, has recently received a new glowing five star customer review on Google Maps. Tatyana, the happy customer, was impressed by the timeliness and customer service skills of this roof installation company in Northwest Calgary, Alberta.

Tatyana writes: "Fantastic work and excellent customer service from Mike. He was quick to provide me a quote and even quicker to come out and get the job done. Not only did he provide great roofing services but his customer service skills are wonderful, he shows compassion and understanding when speaking with his clients and truly makes them feel as though they aren't just another "job"! Thank you Mike! Highly highly recommend. Will be using for future roofing needs!"

In an excellent demonstration of that compassion and understanding, the company has responded to this review. "It was a pleasure to work with you Tatyana," they said. "I'm amazed by your positive mood despite trying times. Please don't hesitate to contact me for all of your roofing needs."

This No Payne Roofing Customer Review is one of many stellar reviews that the roofing company has on Google Maps. As of this most recent review, they have a total of 69 reviews, with an average of 4.9 stars. These customer reviews praise the company for their professional demeanor and the extent of their knowledge on the subject of roofing, as well as their ability to handle a number of roofing-adjacent issues, such as repairing siding and chimneys, and cleaning gutters.

No Payne Roofing serves Calgary and the surrounding areas, providing excellent roofing service for anyone in the region who needs it. They have an A+ rating with the Better Business Bureau, and even partner with a local bank to provide financing for home repairs. Company spokesperson Mike Payne says, "We pride ourselves on providing great service to every customer, so when we receive five star reviews like this one from Tatyana, we appreciate the knowledge that we've made another customer happy. The good publicity of a good public review also doesn't hurt, of course."

When asked about how he enjoys working in roofing in and around Calgary, Mike Payne only had good things to say. "When it comes to roof installation Calgary is a great place to work," he said, especially praising the great customer community that has allowed him to get such a good rating on Google. "We provide all kinds of roofing services, from chimney repair to roof repair to gutter cleaning and skylight installation." They can also install, replace, repair and inspect roofs, and they are knowledgeable about the brutal winters of Alberta and the damage that they can cause to roofs and other residential construction.

The company website has a lot of additional information about roofing, including a gallery of past work, a blog with tips for finding a good roofer and information about what kinds of services a roofer should offer. They also have information about the company and their services, and why a potential customer might want to choose them over another roofing contractor. Reasons they list include the quality and skill of their craftsmanship, their customer service - as reflected by their rave reviews, the fact that they are a "moderately well-organized" company, the quality of the materials they use, and the amount they care about the safety of their clients and their workers. Their workers continue training for as long as they work with No Payne Roofing, so customers can be assured that their roofers have top notch skills and knowledge of all the latest understanding of roofing technology. No Payne Roofing would also like potential customers to know that all customers can contact the owner directly, by call, text or email depending on what works best for them. As the business owner, he'll always be responsive and care about his customer's needs.

In addition to year-round roofing services, No Payne Roofing offers some seasonal roofing services such as snow removal and holiday light installation. Anyone interested in further information about the company and their services can contact Mike Payne or visit the website.
