Naperville, IL ? As one of the more creative holidays on the calendar, Halloween is a time for many people to have fun, eat candy, and go all out with decorating for the festivities. Many are looking to find small trinkets to spruce up trick-or-treating and to help promote the safety of their children when they are out at night. A FedEx shipping store in Naperville, The Boxes Etc., is the one-stop-shop for Halloween treats and cards. Whether customers are looking for a little extra ?treat? to go in their shipment or are just trying to go the extra mile to make someone feel special, The Boxes Etc. has something for everyone this Halloween.

For those looking for costume contest prizes, or something extra to go with their Halloween candy this year, The Boxes Etc. has a wide selection of gifts and other non-edible ?treats?. From stuffed animals to holiday candle sets, they have items to please any age range. In addition to the fun gift items, The Boxes Etc. also has gifts that are essential for trick-or-treating this year. The new NEBO Poplite, flashlights and lanterns are compact and lightweight, making them the perfect safety tool for kids to use when walking neighborhoods this Halloween.

For the friends and family that aren't as close by, The Boxes Etc. also offers one of the best selections of greeting cards in Naperville. For those sending Halloween care packages to kids at college, grandchildren living farther away, or just as a trick-or-treat surprise for friends, a high-quality and unique greeting card can make any package more personal. Putting in the extra effort to write a note and choose a Halloween card to fit the person receiving the package can make the gesture much more special.
