His areas of practice in the chiropractic field include treating Back Pain, Lower Back Pain, Neck Pain, Migraine Relief, Allergies, and Joint Pain. Dr. Schram asserts that, in most cases, these injuries only need proper care and attention. He states that patients will find that consigning themselves to the care of a professional may show immediate results in some situations. Dr. Schram also offers acupuncture treatments for patients who seek relief through this ancient practice, as well as treatment procedures such as Cupping, Qi Gong, Tui Na, Moxibustion, and Gua Sha. He makes use of the latest, cutting edge tools, allowing him to help his patients obtain the best results.

One aspect that differentiates the chiropractic services provided by Dr. Schram from other practices in the area is the individual attention that he pays to each of his client's cases. He takes great pride in listening to his patients? concerns and ailments, using all of the tools and knowledge at his disposal to find the best solution for each patient. This has been widely attested to in several of the office's reviews, as their patients do not hesitate to show their appreciation for the attention and care that they receive at the local center. Through Google, Derek Petak, a loyal patient of Dr. Schram, states, "Dr. Shram and his staff have been professional, caring, and effective over the past five years. I love how Dr. Shram approaches each issue thoroughly and offers multiple treatment options in one session. He will continue to build off of previous treatments and ensures your long term health. I would be lost without this amazing doctor and healer. Thank you!"

Dr. Schram maintains that his commitment is always towards his patients, as he states that he founded his practice in order to help those in pain find relief. He states, "Most of the patients that come to me have been in pain for several years, even after visiting other chiropractors. The most likely cause for this is a lack of communication, as even though I do not doubt the qualifications and skills of my peers, it is evident that there is a disconnect occurring with how they treat their patients. It is for this reason that I go out of my way to establish a meaningful relationship with my patients. Together, we build concrete communication paths through which they can let me know their concerns, ailments, and expectations for their visits."

The local practitioner has invited interested parties to reach out to him through his website to schedule an initial appointment, where clear goals and a path to recovery will be determined. More information on this topic is available here: Chiropractor For Neck Pain New York NY.
