Miami. FL.-?Local trophy store Awards Trophy World is highlighting the importance of recognizing employees this month. As the Thanksgiving season approaches, Awards Trophy World wants to emphasize the need for companies to show their employees how thankful they are for all their hard work and dedication. To help employers decide how to recognize their employees, Awards Trophy World has provided a guide with common corporate recognition awards.

The first corporate recognition award Awards Trophy World recommends employers give to their employees is an acrylic award. Acrylic awards are high quality, beautiful statues that can be crafted in a variety of colors, shapes, and designs. A popular award for teachers is an acrylic award shaped like an apple. According to the ?Miami acrylic awards store, acrylic awards are often engraved with the employee?s name, position, company, and achievement with the year of the award.

Another common corporate recognition award is a desk or nameplate. It?s very common to see employees of high ranking positions have a fancy nameplate on their desk, but nameplates don?t have to be excluded to just the higher-ups in a company. Awards Trophy World recommends rewarding employees with a nameplate when they first start at the company, or for an anniversary of their employment.

The last way the ?corporate awards company in Miami ?recommends recognizing employees is to give them a decorative paperweight. Paperweights, like nameplates, are common desk accessories in any office. Paperweights can be made in any shape, design, or color a client desires. The most common shape is a star engraved with the company?s name.

?We sell only the best quality award products,? Awards Trophy World promises. ?Whatever your budget is, we will help you find a quality product from our huge selection of products, that you will be proud to present.?
