Holbrook, MA ? Fast Home Sales, a leading national cash home buying company serving homeowners in Colorado, Georgia, Indiana, Massachusetts, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee is pleased to announce that they are now buying houses in Bridgeport, Connecticut and throughout the state.

For homeowners across the state of Connecticut who need to relocate quickly, own unwanted rental property, or are facing foreclosure, Fast Home Sales is available to buy regardless of the property?s condition or situation. As one of the fastest-growing real estate companies in the country, the Boston-based firm, which currently buys properties in seven states, is now expanding into other markets around the country, the most recent being Connecticut.

?We?re truly excited that we buy houses in Connecticut now,? explained company co-founder, Daniel D?Ambrosio. ?We are happy to be able to offer them the chance to sell their home without the additional worry of extra costs or having to make their house ready for a sale.?

More and more homeowners are looking for a way to sell their homes that doesn?t take money out of their pocket or take months to happen. For these reasons, cash home buying has become increasingly more popular over the years. It was with the homeowners? needs in mind that Fast Home Sales created their distinctive 3-step home buying process. This process was implemented to provide homeowners with fair pricing and fast turnaround. Homeowners can simply visit the company website, enter the property address to get a cash offer, meet with a team member to inspect the property and choose the closing date. The homeowner is free to either accept or decline the company?s offer.

Now, Connecticut homeowners can take advantage of the 3-step process Fast Home Sales offers to make their home-selling experience as easy as possible. According to D?Ambrosio, ?Selling a home the traditional way can be a horrific process. We strive to make the process simple and hassle-free. Our 3-step process allows you to sell your house fast, on your timeline, while still receiving a fair offer for your home.?

?We understand that every homeowner faces different circumstances. Our team has years of experience with buying homes and we know how to find the right answer to each client?s particular situation,? said D?Ambrosio.

For some homeowners, cash home buying offers a positive financial solution to divesting themselves of unwanted property. Certain circumstances can warrant the need to divest quickly, such as in the case of inherited property, divorce settlements, or vacant properties. Fast Home Sales specializes in helping homeowners find the best solution, without charging commissions or fees and while treating homeowners with integrity and respect throughout the entire home-selling process.

Many sellers don?t realize that listing with an agent or selling their home themselves is not their only option. Most think of selling their home as a complicated matter that warrants unwanted stress, anxiety, and turmoil. When taking their financial goals and timeline for selling their home into consideration, many would agree that a cash home buying firm is the most intelligent choice. By choosing this route, homeowners can save time, money, and worry. Fast Home Sales provides a same-day cash offer, does not charge any commissions or fees, and takes ownership of homes as-is. The homeowner is free of the entire home-selling process avoiding the inconvenience of showing their home or dealing with the negotiations over repair costs, the property is simply sold one-on-one to Fast Home Sales.
