The academic institute maintains a team of highly adept, experienced teachers from a plethora of specialist areas. They take pride in creating environments that encourage students to excel within the set range of subjects and skills that the 11 plus exams demand.

The center also provides a comprehensive set of programs that include exam preparation workshops, as well as revision plans that are based on extensively researched methods of learning. Students will be continually assessed as they progress through the center's programs. They claim that this allows tutors to adapt each tuition session as necessary to fit the student in question so they may continue to improve at a steady pace. James Goldsmith is a graduate of The University of Sussex. He completed his P.G.C.E teaching qualification in 1997 and, since then, has worked as both a teacher and an examiner. Goldsmith also has experience in management that spans a broad spectrum of the State and Independent Education sectors.

Goldsmith's commitment to providing a stellar education to his students is backed up by the testimonials that parents share regarding his tutelage. Sarah Toward says, "James tutored my son for approximately 7 months leading up to the 11+ exam. He instilled confidence and encouraged my son to challenge himself, moving beyond his comfort zone. He gave advice regarding what support materials to practise, and even how much time to spend on certain activities. Getting through the 11+ is not easy for the parent or child, but we made it with James's guidance, perseverance and expertise. He enabled my son to get a fantastic result and to go to the grammar school we were hoping for. Thanks, James!?"

In another testimonial, Jessica White says, "I found The Eleven Plus Tutors in Essex website and thought that I would give them a call. I found them to be extremely knowledgeable and happy to talk."

Goldsmith says, "The capable and experienced staff at our Colchester tuition centre hold weekly sessions. All of our tuition sessions are carefully crafted to cover all the areas needed for success across each variation of the 11+ examination. All students of the Eleven Plus Tutors in Colchester are also provided a reading list and membership to our online testing system.
