Clarington, ON - Introducing a new Real Estate Service making it easier to find a local Realtor.

Clarington is the fastest growing community in Durham Region. It was originally made up of two different regions, Clarke and Darlington, later merging the two names of its old townships into one. Its main urban centres include: Bowmanville, Courtice, and Newcastle, which are all located at the south-end of the municipality, just north of Highway 401.

With an abundance of growth in the area, Clarington is now seeing a new Real Estate Service being launched - making it easier for Buyers and Sellers to connect with Real Estate Agents servicing this area. The service will allow for residents to connect with localised Agents, specialized in the area, giving them the white glove service they've been yearning for.

Their Agents and team have won multiple awards, including the prestigious 2018 President's Gold Award, and pride themselves in taking the guess-work out of finding a great Realtor.
