November 22, 2019 -

Fast Home Sales, based in Holbrook, Massachusetts, has announced that they?re expanding and are now buying houses in Hackensack, New Jersey. They are a top cash house buying company whose goal is to help homeowners sell their houses fast. Their home buying process is fast compared to the usual selling process because they purchase houses with cash, there is no need for a real estate agent, and they buy the house as-is. Meanwhile, they would also like people to know that they also buy houses in other states, just like in Connecticut. Rob Morris, a representative for Fast Home Sales, says, ?We would also like people to know that we buy houses in Connecticut and in other areas too.?

The conventional process of selling a house can very stressful for the homeowner. This can add to the stress that the homeowners already have due to the situation that they?re in that is possibly forcing them to sell the house. Perhaps, they?re going through a divorce, or the house is on the brink of foreclosure, or the breadwinner in the home has changed jobs and has to move to another city. And then, there is also the stress that comes with the need to move to another place.

To sell a house, the traditional way is to contact a real estate agent and have the house listed. However, no agent would want to list a house that is in a state of disrepair or has a dilapidated appearance. Therefore, the house cannot be listed for sale until repairs and cleaning have been completed to make the house appear presentable. And even when a potential buyer is found, it may still take weeks or months to close because the buyer has to wait for the approval of financing. In short, the traditional way is one that a house seller would want to bypass if ever possible. Rob Morris from Fast Home Sales says, ?We have good news for home sellers. We can promise to take the hassles out of selling your home. No more showings, no agents, no fees, no financing approvals, no mountains of paperwork, and no more waiting and hoping for your home to sell. If you want to sell your house fast in Hackensack, we are ready to make a cash offer on your Hackensack home.?

Fast Home Sales offers a simple three-step house buying process. In the first step, the house sellers submit their information. This can be done on the company website. Potential sellers can fill out an online form on the site. Next, a representative from the company goes to the property and conducts an inspection. A no-obligation offer is then presented. The homeowner will decide whether or not to accept the offer. If they accept the offer, they proceed to step three, which is to choose a closing date. Fast Home Sales will take note of that and will take care of all of the paperwork. At the closing date, they will close at a reputable local area title company and the seller receives the cash.

A key factor in the process is that they will be paying in cash. They can do that because they are a group of investors who have pooled their resources with the goal of buying houses for cash. This is to ensure that the process will only take about a week. With the traditional way of selling a house, it could take weeks or even months because the buyer will need to wait for financing approval and this takes a long time. During closing, the total amount offered to the seller will be given in cash. This will not be diminished because there are no listing fees and commissions to pay because a real estate was not required in the transactions.
