"Whether you need local towing, long-distance towing, roadside assistance services, or if you find yourself in an emergency roadside situation, our team of experienced drivers and technicians are just a phone call away. We are also open 24/7 to assist you," he says.

In addition, Hatfield affirms that Phil's Towing is a fully licensed, bonded, and insured towing company that utilises modern flatbed rollback tow truck to ensure that their clients' vehicles are safe and in good hands. Their roadside assistance services include 24/7 flatbed towing, car lockout, motorcycle towing, glass repairs, off-road assistance, winching services, oil and fuel solutions, and many more. "We are reliable, fast, and efficient in delivering our services to the stranded motorist. Customer satisfaction is a top priority for our company. Our staff are friendly, courteous, professional and available 24 hours, 7 days of the week," Hatfield says.

He also warns the general public about dishonest tow truck companies in Maryland whose practice is to overcharge customers. "Do not get ripped off by expensive unreliable towing service from our so called competitors. Give us a call to request for a free quotation so you can compare the price difference. If you are in need of affordable yet quality towing in Baltimore, do not hesitate to call us. We are credible and our services are of high quality despite being cost-effective," he says.

Thanks to the company's presence at multiple locations, it often takes them no more than 30 minutes to get to their customers. They are able to pinpoint an exact location using GPS technology, allowing them to arrive as fast as possible. Their emergency roadside assistance services engage a fully bonded, insured, and trained towing technician who has the skills required to perform emergency repairs on the spot. If needed, they can tow the automobile to the nearest repair shop.

Towing goes beyond the pulling and removal of vehicles from isolated areas and places of accidents. "We will take care of your vehicle," says Hatfield. "Our professional towing company has the necessary machinery to handle your vehicle in a manner that limits or even eliminates damages while towing. Such mechanized equipment are rare to find anywhere else within the industry."
