

Ontario, California Warehouse Injury Lawyer Defends Victims Of Workplace Injuries

December 04, 2019

Ontario, California - December 04, 2019 -
The Ontario, CA based Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer is reaching out to warehouse workers in the region, particularly Amazon Warehouse workers, to assure them that the firm?s services are at their disposal in the event they suffer injuries at work. The firm wants every worker at these locations to understand that they may have many more options to pursue the compensation they deserve, and the firm is ready and willing to help injured parties fight for what they are owed.

As the firm notes, hundreds of warehouse workers are hurt every year while they are on duty. Unfortunately, the vast majority of these individuals remain unaware of the extent of the compensation they are due, and they may even be encouraged to accept a settlement that is worth far less by their employer?s insurance provider.

According to the Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer, ?California workers' compensation is supposed to provide a safety net capable of putting you back on your feet. Unfortunately, the injured are victimized due to a lack of sophistication. Fortunately, there is a solution. Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer at 430 N Vineyard Ave Suite 125, Ontario, CA, 91764 exists to fight for the rights of warehouse employees doing picking and other activities associated with package delivery in a warehouse.? Specializing in cases involving personal injury law, the firm focuses primarily on representing the victims of a broad range of accidents. As a result, they retain a great deal of experience ensuring that their clients get the compensation they are due, and that parties responsible for such accidents are held responsible. While both the firm?s existing and former clients know how vital it is for victims to seek legal representation as soon as possible in these cases, they acknowledge that workers who have just suffered their first major injury will likely believe they should consult their employer?s legal team for the best information. This, however, is not the case.

?Your employer?s insurance and legal teams exist to protect them, not you,? explains the Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer. ?They will probably encourage you to accept their first settlement offer, and such offers will often appear to be quite fair on the surface. However, this process will also make it much harder to seek any further compensation in the future, which can be a difficult realization once you take your medical bills and other damage to your finances into account.? The solution, says the firm, is to seek out a reputable and experienced attorney who can fight on their client?s behalf. The Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer, led by Alexander Napolin, is one such firm that can accomplish this.

The firm elaborates, ?Mr. Napolin is a successful personal injury lawyer who asserts claims against the insurance companies using his proven methodology. We believe that Napolin's approach when prosecuting accident injury claims results in successful outcomes for his clients. When you hire Napolin, you acquire an energetic and diverse legal team here to help you overcome your injuries.?

One of the most notable aspects of their services may be the fact that the firm does not require payment for their services if they fail to bring a successful resolution to their client?s case. On one hand, this is due to the firm?s confidence in their own ability to fight effectively on each client?s behalf. On the other, they understand that the fear of having to pay additional legal bills they cannot afford often prevents accident victims from pursuing their cases. The firm calls this their No Fee Promise, saying, ?If we don?t win, you don?t pay.? Since this means clients can request a free consultation with the firm, the Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer hopes that accident victims will be encouraged to seek out legal help as soon as they require it.

Those who wish to take up the firm?s offer of a free consultation may use the contact form on the firm?s website to get started. Interested parties may contact Alexander D. Napolin for further details as well. The firm is ready to take on clients who have suffered any of a wide variety of injuries, from vehicular accidents to slip and fall cases.
